SERIES CONCEPT

Adult Rights Specialists provide assistance and advocacy to protect and enhance the health, safety, welfare and rights of older persons (adults 60 and older) and/or vulnerable persons (adults with intellectual, physical or related disabilities), henceforth referred to as clients.

Assist clients and their caregivers with life planning decisions and in attaining or maintaining the highest possible level of independent living.

Provide information and referrals to agencies that provide services to support individuals' physical, emotional, social and economic well-being; locate and coordinate a network of referral services and resources for financial, health care, housing, in-home care, long-term care, legal, transportation and other service needs of clients.

Develop and maintain partnerships with key referral sources; determine appropriate services; identify gaps in services; conduct surveys to gather information; solicit needed services and resources; provide information regarding services; collaborate with other agencies to coordinate the delivery of services.

Receive and respond to walk-in, telephone, fax and e-mail inquiries and complaints; respond to technical requests for assistance; complete intake forms and other types of forms and assessments as required; enter information into a computer; respond to complaints and concerns by evaluating and assessing individuals' needs; provide advocacy and case management; refer individuals to appropriate services which may include follow-up to ensure services are accessed properly; complete records on services provided to include statements, pertinent data and final disposition.

Research, develop, update and conduct public presentations based on requests for information; provide information and assistance to professional staff, service providers, caregivers, community organizations, law enforcement and other agencies' personnel regarding abuse, neglect, exploitation, and isolation of clients.

Evaluate current resources to meet the needs of clients; provide other related services as needed to ensure overall quality assurance efforts are met.

Assist in developing policies, procedures and forms; review proposed regulations and legislation to determine the impact on clients; participate on committees, special task forces or community groups as assigned; assist in provider orientation as assigned.

Perform related duties as assigned.
