CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION SPECIALIST	32	B	12.368

Under general supervision, review and determine program eligibility for financial assistance in compliance with statutory requirements of the Victims of Crime Program.

Review applications for assistance under the Victims of Crime Program to determine eligibility for program benefits, extent of the injury or financial hardship, and the amount and type of award sought by victims.

Contact victims and conduct comprehensive interviews to obtain statements involving crimes; obtain victim signatures on release forms to obtain medical records, police reports, employer verification of lost wages, and verification of insurance coverage or other sources of funding such as public assistance or the county sexual assault fund for which the victim may be eligible.

Perform field work to verify victim statements by contacting local law enforcement agencies, medical providers, employers and insurers to obtain copies of needed reports and records.

Review and interpret police reports, medical records and claims to determine if eligibility conditions exist in accordance with State law under the Victims of Crime Program; compare reports to victim statements to verify facts surrounding cases; and assess issues of provocation and consent or other actions by victims which may have contributed to the crime.

Determine eligibility and render written decisions, including orders directing payment of compensation and provide case files, rebuttal statements and testimony as needed for appellate level reviews.

Evaluate claim expenses and supplemental billings to determine which are eligible for compensation and which are inappropriate or exceed maximum allowed and calculate appropriate payments.

Prepare and maintain files, records and statistics and prepare periodic activity reports for management review.

Develop and maintain contacts within the community such as law enforcement officials, medical providers and other agencies providing support to victims to establish primary and secondary payor status; refer victims to other appropriate resources, and promote community awareness.

May supervise administrative support staff by providing input toward employee selection, conducting training, assigning and reviewing work, conducting performance appraisals and implementing disciplinary actions.

Conduct outreach presentations to the public, law enforcement officers and staff of various agencies regarding program objectives and related laws, rules, regulations, policies and procedures.

Perform related duties as assigned.
