SERIES CONCEPT

Veterans Service Officers advise and advocate for veterans and individuals currently serving in the United States armed forces who are State residents, their spouses, widows, widowers, children, dependents, estate and personal representatives; prepare, submit and present claims and appeals for denied benefits including adjusted compensation, hospitalization, insurance, pension, disability compensation, vocational training, education or rehabilitation; provide assistance and advice to resolve problems and answer questions relating to available benefits under State and federal laws.

Advocate for individuals, groups or organizations eligible under State laws and federal regulations related to veterans services and/or benefits; interview clients to elicit information and determine merits of claim and eligibility to receive benefits; identify veteran benefit resources; respond to constituent complaints; research clients’ claims and applicable case law, regulations, medical opinions, medical journals and related medical research publications.

Investigate circumstances upon which claims are based; identify, locate, contact and obtain statements from military, medical and lay witnesses to substantiate claim; assist clients in locating and obtaining documentation to support claims such as medical records, military service records, military unit activity reports, order of battle histories, and the construction, mechanical and technical specifications of military vehicles and equipment.

Develop the best strategy and course of action for filing Notice of Disagreement and Hearing Requests; calculate monetary benefits; advise clients on the appeal process and provide guidance regarding clients’ responsibilities; obtain a power of attorney to present appeals on behalf of clients; prepare written summaries of findings and contentions including legal citations and references to medical research and journals.

Research, prepare, and present arguments in support of appeals; prepare and maintain statistical data relating to claims, monetary awards and medical information within the Nevada Department of Veterans Services and U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs databases.

Participate in appropriate veterans organizations, committees, stand-downs, separation from service briefing sessions and community events as a representative of the Nevada Department of Veterans Services.

Provide information regarding available veterans benefits, eligibility and appellant action to individuals, groups and organizations in person, on the phone or through written correspondence; visit local hospitals, convalescent homes, and residences to assist individuals in claiming and obtaining the services or assistance to which they are entitled.

Perform related duties as assigned.

CLASS CONCEPTS

Veterans Service Program Manager: Under general direction, the incumbent manages the Veterans Service Program for the Nevada Department of Veterans Services. The incumbent develops and implements policies and procedures; oversees statewide service delivery; and plans, organizes, coordinates, analyzes and manages the operations and services provided by program staff. The Veterans Service Program Manager supervises and evaluates the performance of subordinate Veterans Service Officer I and II. In addition, the incumbent provides services to veterans, submits claims and provides representation before the Veterans Administration and at hearings.

Veterans Service Officer II: Under general direction, incumbents at this level either:

1) Supervise and evaluate the performance of lower-level Veterans Service Officer I, Veterans Service Officer Trainees and support staff, in addition to performing the full range of duties outlined in the series concept. Incumbents are also responsible for recruitment, interviewing, selection, training and instruction of assigned staff; or

2) Serve as the training and curriculum coordinator, in addition to performing the full range of duties outlined in the series concept. Manage specific training programs to ensure certification of volunteer Nevada Veteran Advocates, Veteran Service Officers and accreditation of Resident Veteran Service Officers and Department Veteran Service Officers; manage individual training records and coordinate with the Director and supervisors to ensure compliance with training requirements; and provide case management. Establish curriculum, update training materials, develop, and present workshops for attaining certification and accreditation; and coordinate with third-party organizations to provide required training.

Veterans Service Officer I: Under general supervision, incumbents perform a broad range of duties outlined in the series concept, respond to constituent complaints and identify veteran benefit resources. This is the journey level in the series.

Veterans Service Officer Trainee: Under close supervision, incumbents receive on-the-job training to acquire required Resident Veteran Service Officer certification. This is the trainee level in the series and provides for progression to the next level upon obtaining Resident Veteran Service Officer certification, meeting the minimum qualifications, and with the recommendation of the appointing authority.
