SERIES CONCEPT

ESD Appeals Referees conduct fair and impartial quasi-judicial hearings related to unemployment insurance benefits, experience rating rulings and employer tax liability cases; make decisions affecting benefit payments, effective dates of eligibility and tax liability for past, present and future employees of a business; affirm, modify or reverse any overpayment already established and impose disqualifications when claimants make willful misrepresentation of facts; elicit and record testimony, accept documentation, and make findings of fact; weigh the validity of issues and evidence presented at the hearing; research and interpret related laws, case law, regulations, policies and procedures applicable to the issues; and make appropriate decisions.

Schedule, open and preside at hearings under the guidelines of the Nevada Administrative Procedures Act, federal laws, regulations and standards, and agency policies and procedures; issue subpoenas for witnesses and/or records; admit relevant documentation, testimony and exhibits into evidence; summarize the issues for the record and for the parties involved; question claimants/petitioners and witnesses to clarify facts; swear in witnesses and control questioning; maintain order and rule on procedural matters including the admissibility and relevance of evidence presented; guide the development of the case and maintain a clear, understandable record.

Review and analyze documented evidence and arguments and research applicable laws, case law, and regulations; make decisions based on facts established during hearings, opinions obtained from expert witnesses which clarify issues being heard, and applicable policies, laws and regulations.

Render written decisions; clearly state the relevant issues, findings of fact that support any conclusions of law, and reasons and rationale for the decision; cite applicable law and case law and where conflicting evidence exists, state the basis for finding one party's evidence more credible; sign final decisions which are subject to appellate review.

Perform related duties as assigned.

CLASS CONCEPTS

Chief ESD Appeals Referee: Incumbents develop and implement statewide procedures to provide timely due process at both the initial and final administrative hearing levels for unemployment insurance benefits, experience rating rulings and employer tax liability cases, Trade Readjustment Act, and other programs.

Analyze and evaluate the impact of mandated program changes and make recommendations for implementation; facilitate implementation of new programs and services in appeals offices; allocate staffing resources, training and capital to provide optimal service throughout the State; publish directives regarding program goals and objectives, minimum work standards and work processes to ensure compliance with laws, regulations and requirements.

Supervise subordinate supervisors and appeals referees; identify parameters under which offices function and optimum methods of operation; conduct staff meetings to share information and ensure appropriate methods for resolving problems; review operational status of the appeals program in each office, identify performance deficiencies, and ensure compliance with policies, directives and procedures.

Review second level of testimony and prepare a digest of testimony; answer correspondence; advise Board of Review on law, precedent and policy applicable to appeals being heard; compose written Board decisions and opinions from notations of Board action.

ESD Appeals Referee II: Under general direction of the Chief ESD Appeals Referee, incumbents perform the full range of duties in the series concept and in addition, coordinate, organize and supervise ESD Appeals Referee I positions and clerical support staff in a regional office.

Provide appropriate training and staff development; provide technical expertise on more difficult cases; answer subordinate questions and resolve problems/complaints with staff and clients; develop work performance standards, and conduct performance evaluations; recommend and prepare documentation for disciplinary action; review and summarize double affirmative cases for the Board of Review; attend Board hearings in the manager's absence and write reversal and remand decisions.

Evaluate workload and production reports and adjust work assignments to meet federal requirements; complete and score quality assurance case evaluations quarterly and transmit results to the Department of Labor.

ESD Appeals Referee I: Incumbents perform the full range of duties described in the series concept under general supervision of an ESD Appeals Referee II. Work is assigned according to caseload standards or status and is reviewed through case reviews and evaluation by an ESD Appeals Referee II, subsequent appeals and Board of Review action. This is the journey level in the series.
