DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES
A GUIDE FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Approved by the Board of Agriculture on December 3, 2014

Approved by the Personnel Commission on March 20, 2015.

INTRODUCTION

Each member of the Nevada Department of Agriculture (NDA) has the responsibility to follow the rules of proper conduct and performance vital to carrying out our Agency's mission. While there may be situations you encounter that are unfamiliar or unexpected and which require you to exercise your judgment, it is important to have a clear understanding of the rules that govern your actions in performing your duties.

Although it would be impossible to address every infraction or violation that could conceivably develop, this Prohibitions and Penalties document should prove to be sufficiently comprehensive to cover the majority of situations that could be a source of concern. Since it covers a wide range of actions and behaviors, it should provide an excellent guide for supervisors and employees on what is expected in the area of proper conduct.

This Prohibitions and Penalties document is intended to clarify existing rules and regulations. It is meant as a supplement and does not attempt to cover all possible infractions and violations of the existing rules; however, it does cover the majority of situations that are important to NDA. All employees of NDA will be issued a copy of the "Prohibitions and Penalties" document.

After receipt of this document, please sign the "Acknowledgement Form," which is the last page of this document and return it to Agency Human Resources Services or to your immediate Supervisor.

AUTHORITY

The authority for management to prescribe behavior and conduct standards derives from Chapter 284 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) and the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC).

These standards are in addition to prohibitions and offenses that are listed in NAC 284. This handbook has been approved by the Personnel Commission and thus has the same force and effect as other rules and regulations covering classified employees.

TYPES OF CORRECTIVE ACTIONS AND THE PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

Letter of Instruction. A letter of instruction to the employee is typically written by the supervisor(s) responsible for the employee's activities. The letter is intended to provide the employee with information and instruction or training, and establishes documentation that the employee has been made aware of his or her responsibility with regard to a particular situation or set of circumstances. The Letter of Instruction is intended as a coaching tool and is not part of the disciplinary process and, therefore, is not included in the order of disciplinary actions that follow.

Progressive discipline normally follows the sequence outlined below. However, accelerated action may be taken when necessary.

1. Oral Warning. The oral warning typically comes from the supervisor responsible for the employee's activities. The warning may actually be oral or written, or both. A copy of the oral warning issued in writing is given to the employee and maintained in the supervisor's file with another copy sent to the employee's departmental personnel file. Oral warnings may not be forwarded to the Division of Human Resource Management's Records section.
2. Written Reprimand. The supervisor responsible for the employee's activities also issues written reprimands. This action should be both oral and written. The supervisor and employee must sign it. A copy is given to the employee and copies are sent to the employee's departmental personnel file as well as the Division of Human Resource Management's Records section. Written reprimands must be on the standardized form NPD-52. If the employee refuses to sign the form, the supervisor will state this fact on the NPD-52 form, and another supervisor should sign as a witness.
3. Suspension. A suspension is without pay and may not exceed 30 calendar days. It requires an NPD-41 form-Specificity of Charges. If the employee refuses to sign the form, the supervisor will state this fact on the NPD-41 form, and another supervisor should sign as a witness.
4. Demotion. A demotion to a lower class also requires the NPD-41 form-Specificity of Charges. If the employee refuses to sign the form, the supervisor will state this fact on the NPD-41 form, and another supervisor should sign as a witness.
5. Dismissal. Dismissal from service also requires the NDP-41 form-Specificity of Charges. If the employee refuses to sign the form, the supervisor will state this fact on the NPD-41 form, and another supervisor should sign as a witness.

NOTE: The Division Administrator of the employee's assigned Division will review pending disciplinary actions and grievances and consult with Agency Human Resource Services, who will consult with the Attorney General's Office as necessary, to ensure proper documentation, timely processing of disciplinary actions and grievances, and accuracy of employee files. According to NRS section 284.385 the Attorney General must be consulted prior to all disciplinary actions involving a recommendation of suspension (3), demotion (4), or dismissal of a permanent employee.

The attached chart shows recommended minimum and maximum penalties for the first, second, and additional offenses for a wide range of prohibited activities. If disciplinary actions 3, 4 or 5, described at the top of each section are recommended for a permanent employee, the pre-disciplinary hearing guidelines found in NAC 284.656 must be followed.

NOTE: Appropriate disciplinary or corrective action may also be taken for any causes listed in Section 284.650 of the Nevada Administrative Code, "Causes for Disciplinary Action"

(<http://www.leg.state.nv.us/NAC/NAC-284.html#NAC284Sec650>)

Actions that result in an oral warning or a written reprimand can be grieved through the formal grievance process. Corrective actions resulting in suspension, demotion or dismissal provide for a pre-disciplinary hearing process and a post-disciplinary appeal before a Hearing Officer provided by the Personnel Commission.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES

The authority for management to prescribe behavior and conduct standards derives from Chapter 284 of the Nevada Revised Statutes and the Disciplinary Procedures, Adjustment of Grievances, and Prohibitions and Offenses sections of the State of Nevada Rules for State Personnel Administration. These regulations provide that each appointing authority shall determine and describe in writing activities that are inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with the duties and responsibilities of Department of Agriculture employees.

The Department of Agriculture’s Prohibitions and Penalties document is a guide that intends to clarify existing rules and regulations, but does not cover all infractions and violations that could conceivably occur. It does however cover the majority of situations that are important to the State of Nevada Department of Agriculture. As a tool, which describes behavior that is subject to discipline, the guide will serve the needs of both supervisory personnel and employees. Additions, deletions or changes to the guide as they are approved by The State Personnel Commission, will be communicated to employees in the same manner as other Department of Agriculture policies and procedures.

The State Personnel Commission approved this guide, thus it has the same force and effect as other rules and regulations covering classified employees.

Once signed, this acknowledgement will be placed in the employee’s personnel file.

Acknowledgement of Receipt:

I acknowledge receipt of the Department of Agriculture’s Prohibitions and Penalties.
