STATE OF NEVADA PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS PROGRAM

PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES

A GUIDE FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS PROGRAM

Approved by the Personnel Commission on March 19, 2021

FORWARD

This Prohibitions and Penalties document is intended as a guide to clarify existing statutes and regulations. It is meant as a supplement and does not attempt to cover all possible infractions and violations of the existing rules; however, it does cover the majority of situations that are important to the State of Nevada Public Employees' Benefits Program (PEBP) management. All employees of PEBP will be issued a copy of the "Prohibitions and Penalties" guide.

After receipt of this guide, please sign the "Acknowledgement Form," which is the last page of this guide and return it to PEBP Agency HR Services or your Immediate Supervisor.

AUTHORITY

The authority for management to prescribe behavior and conduct standards derives from Chapter 284 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) and the Nevada Administrative Code (NAC). The "Prohibitions and Offenses" section of NAC 284 provide that each appointing authority will determine and describe standards of conduct that are prohibited as inconsistent, incompatible or in conflict with their duties as an employee. These standards are in addition to prohibitions and penalties that are listed in statute and regulation that apply to all State employees. All employees of this agency will be issued a copy of the "Employee's Guide to Prohibitions and Penalties."

This guide has been approved by the Personnel Commission and thus has the same force and effect as other statutes and regulations covering classified employees. The penalties identified for the various infractions are merely guidelines and may be applied to a greater or lesser degree indicated depending on the circumstances.

COACHING

Coaching normally takes place prior to beginning the disciplinary process. The Letter of Instruction, and any other means of coaching are not part of the disciplinary process.

Letter of Instruction. A letter of instruction to the employee is typically written by the supervisor(s) responsible for the employee's activities. The letter is intended to provide the employee with information and instruction or training and establishes documentation that the employee has been made aware of his or her responsibility concerning a particular situation or set of circumstances.

THE PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE PROCESS

Progressive discipline normally follows the sequence outlined below. However, accelerated action may be taken when necessary.

1. Oral Warning. When instruction and training have not resulted in the change in behavior or performance that is desired, an "oral warning" is usually the first step in the progressive disciplinary process. This level of discipline may be skipped when the seriousness of the employee's behavior and/or performance warrants a higher level of discipline on a first offense and typically comes from the supervisor responsible for the employee's activities. The oral warning is documented and maintained in the supervisor's

- file. Oral warnings are not forwarded to the employee's departmental personnel file or the Division of Human Resource Management's Central Records section.
- 2. Written Reprimand. Typically the second level in the disciplinary process, a written reprimand is used when previous corrective and disciplinary action has not produced the appropriate change in behavior or performance or when the seriousness of a first offense warrants a higher level of discipline such as willful actions and/or threats. A copy of the Written Reprimand (form NPD-52) is maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file held by as the Division of Human Resource Management's Central Records section.
- 3. Suspension. When previous corrective and disciplinary action have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or performance or due to the serious of a first offense, a suspension leave without pay may not exceed 30 calendar days. A copy of the Specificity of Charges (form NPD-41) which documents the reasons for the suspension is maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file held by the Division of Human Resource Management's Central Records section. Additionally, an appointing authority may refuse to consider the appointment (promotion, transfer, etc.) of an otherwise eligible employee who has been subject to a suspension as a result of an upheld or uncontested disciplinary action.
- 4. Demotion. Typically, after other forms of discipline have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or when the employee's behavior is particularly egregious, a demotion to a lower class may be used as a form of discipline. A copy of the Specificity of Charges (form NPD-41) which documents the reasons for the demotion is maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file held by the Division of Human Resource Management's Central Records section. Additionally, an appointing authority may refuse to consider the appointment (promotion, transfer, etc.) of an otherwise eligible employee who has been subject to a demotion as a result of an upheld or uncontested disciplinary action.
- 5. Dismissal. Typically, after other forms of discipline have not produced the appropriate change in behavior or when the employee's behavior is particularly egregious, dismissal from the State may be warranted. A copy of the Specificity of Charges (form NPD-41) which documents the reasons for the dismissal is maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file held by the Division of Human Resource Management's Central Records section.

NOTE: The Division Administrator of the employee's assigned Division will review pending disciplinary steps and grievances and consult with Agency HR Services, and the Attorney General's Office as necessary, to ensure proper documentation, timely processing of disciplinary steps and grievances, and accuracy of employee files. Agency HR Services must consult with the Attorney General's Office prior to all disciplinary steps involving a recommendation of suspension (3), demotion (4), or dismissal (5) of a permanent employee.

The attached chart shows recommended minimum and maximum penalties for the first, second, and additional offenses for a wide range of prohibited activities. If disciplinary actions 3, 4 or 5, described at the top of each chart are recommended for a permanent employee, the predisciplinary review guidelines found in NAC 284.656 must be followed.

NOTE: Appropriate disciplinary or corrective action may also be taken for any causes listed in Section 284.650 of the Nevada Administrative Code, "Causes for Disciplinary Action" (http://www.leg.state.nv.us/NAC/NAC-284.html#NAC284Sec650)

Disciplinary steps that result in an oral warning or a written reprimand can be grieved through the formal grievance process. Disciplinary steps resulting in suspension, demotion or dismissal may be appealed before a Hearing Officer provided by the Personnel Commission.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS PROGRAM PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES

The authority for management to prescribe behavior and conduct standards derives from Chapter 284 of the Nevada Revised Statutes and the Disciplinary Procedures, Adjustment of Grievances, and Prohibitions and Offenses sections of the State of Nevada Rules for State Personnel Administration. These regulations provide that each appointing authority shall determine and describe in writing activities that are inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with the duties and responsibilities of the State of Nevada Public Employees' Benefits Program (PEBP) employees.

The PEBP Prohibitions and Penalties document is a guide that intends to clarify existing statutes and regulations but does not cover all infractions and violations that could conceivably occur. It does, however, cover the majority of situations that are important to PEBP management. As a tool, which describes behavior that is subject to discipline, the guide will serve the needs of both supervisory personnel and employees. Additions, deletions or changes to the guide as they are approved by The State Personnel Commission, will be communicated to employees in the same manner as other PEBP policies and procedures.

The State Personnel Commission approved this guide; thus, it has the same force and effect as other statutes and regulations covering classified employees.

Once signed, this acknowledgment will be placed in the employee's personnel file.
