Agent Position Enforcement Division Las Vegas, Nevada

The Nevada Gaming Control Board's Enforcement Division is accepting applications for an Enforcement Agent position in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Under immediate or general supervision, receives training and conducts criminal, regulatory and intelligence investigations in compliance with NRS 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 205, 207 and applicable regulations; collects, analyzes, and documents the information obtained; prepares comprehensive reports for the distribution and use of the Nevada Gaming Control Board, the Nevada Gaming Commission and other authorized agencies; investigates disputes involving gaming activities; ensures regulatory compliance by gaming licensees; develops and operates informants; provides instruction and on-the-job training to new agents; may act as a first-line supervisor of subordinates; completes assigned special projects and administrative duties; and performs related work as required.

The minimum qualifications for the position is graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice, Administration of Justice, Pre-Law, Business Administration, Public Administration, Accounting, Economics, Finance, Computer Science or other applicable degree; or an equivalent combination of education and investigative experience involving white collar crime, narcotics trafficking or money laundering, organized crime, intelligence collection, fraud or closely related experience and/or professional level experience in the areas of: accounting, auditing, legal research, business or public administration in a related area or closely related experience.

Both education and experience can be substituted on a year-for-year basis.

NV Peace Officers Standard and Training (P.O.S.T.) Category 1 certification is a requirement to be placed on the list for this recruitment. Submittals from applicants that are active duty (or were within 60 months) police officers in the United States will be accepted subject to the Nevada Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) requirements as established in NAC 289, including, in most cases, passing a "lie detector" and psychological examination prior to beginning employment. Nevada P.O.S.T. will evaluate an out of state applicant's police certification to make that reciprocity determination.

Must also meet P.O.S.T. physical condition requirements, including, vertical jump, agility run, sit-ups, push-ups, run and walk.

Applicants will be required to undergo mandatory drug testing prior to appointment and agree to random and reasonable suspicion drug testing as a condition of employment.

Applicants must undergo a medical examination by a licensed physician who confirms in writing that no physical conditions exist which would adversely affect the individual's performance as a peace officer.

The salary will be contingent upon education and experience with a salary range of $42,130 - $70,218 (employee/employer paid retirement).

All applicants who meet the minimum qualifications are eligible to apply for this position and may do so by completing an application on the Nevada Gaming Control Board website @ www.gaming.nv.gov. Only applications submitted through the website will be accepted.

Applications will be accepted until the recruitment is satisfied.

The Nevada Gaming Control Board is an equal opportunity employer.
