Minimum Qualifications

A bachelor's degree in geology, geological engineering or mining engineering or a related earth science field from an accredited, non-correspondence college or university and at least three (3) years of relevant experience in the minerals industry. Copies of transcripts must be included with the application for verification.

Demonstrated proficiency in ArcGIS / ArcView, Microsoft Office applications (including Word, Excel, Access, Outlook and PowerPoint); utilization of plotters, printers, scanners and various internet applications is expected.

The Nevada Division of Minerals

The Division's mission is to encourage and assist in the responsible exploration for and the production of minerals, oil, gas, and geothermal energy which are economically beneficial to the State. The seven-member Commission on Mineral Resources is a public body appointed by the Governor and directs mineral-related policy for the Division and advises the Governor and Legislature on matters relating to mineral resources. The Division focuses its efforts on three main areas: Industry relations and public affairs; regulation of oil, gas, and geothermal drilling activities and well operations; and abandoned mine lands. Further information concerning the Division is available on the website at minerals.nv.gov.

Benefits

Medical, dental, and vision insurance programs are available; paid vacation and sick leave; 11 paid holidays per year; retirement plan (PERS), life and disability insurance program, and tax sheltered deferred compensation programs are also available. State employees do not contribute to Social Security. Long-term employees enjoy additional benefits.

Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action

The State of Nevada is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Qualified persons are considered for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin, political affiliation or disability, as outlined in the State Affirmative Action Plan.

Any interested person may submit their NVAPPS applicant profile and resume by email to the Nevada Division of Minerals, Attn: Valerie Kneefel. The Division will then review the information and extend invitations for interviews.
