you have somewhere to turn.

Your Employee Assistance Program - Help when you need it.

Whether you are dealing with a big issue, or are simply looking for advice, your EAP provides professional, confidential support services and information for a wide variety of life areas, such as:

- Family
- Alcohol/Drugs
- Anxiety
- Managing Stress
- Parenting
- Workplace
- Aging
- Depression
- Grief
- Relationships
- Abuse

Your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) from KEPRO is a free service offered to you, your dependents and eligible household members, in collaboration with your employer. Your decision to use your EAP benefit is voluntary and confidential.

Professional, Confidential Counseling Services

KEPRO EAP professionals are experienced, caring individuals who hold master or doctoral degrees in counseling or a related field. They are certified or licensed by the appropriate state agency. All discussions between you and your EAP professional are confidential. Information regarding your contact with the EAP cannot be released without your written consent, except by court order; imminent threat of harm to self or others; or in situations of abuse (such as child or elder abuse).

No Out-of-Pocket Cost

Your EAP is offered to you at no cost. Most concerns can be resolved directly with your EAP professional, but in the case that additional services are needed,* your EAP professional will work with you to identify the most appropriate and affordable community resources to help meet your needs.

*Please note: referrals to services outside of your EAP benefit may require out-of-pocket cost.
