Save $15 Off Each Ticket!

The 2018 Monster Energy Cup returns to Las Vegas for the Million Dollar Race on October 13, 2018 as the world's most elite athletes compete for the largest purse in motorcycle racing.

The Monster Energy Cup is one of the most anticipated invitation-only races of the year and unlike any other event in the world with a unique format giving the sport's biggest names a chance to battle it out for the Monster Million, which has only been achieved twice since the event's inception in 2011. Last year's Monster Energy Cup winner, Red Bull KTM Factory Racing's Marvin Musquin, became only the second rider in history to take home $1 million. This year, the world's top two-wheeled athletes will return to lay it all on the line for a shot at the cash.
