

What Our Graduates Say . . .

It is very challenging, but it is very beneficial in developing critical management and leadership skills. You will learn tools and skills that you can bring back to your Department and use immediately.

CPM is an opportunity to re-energize your career.

It provides concepts relevant to a career in public service. CPM is a highly recognized program within the State, and its benefits and the effort required to complete it are well known.

CPM has provided me with some amazing tools to help me become a better leader.

Wonderful opportunity to strengthen supervisory and leadership skills.

This is an exceptional program. I learned so much and met a lot of great people along the way.

Great networking environment with peers from many different departments with one common quality – the desire to make the State the best it can be.

A photograph of a gnarled tree growing on a rocky cliff against a blue sky with clouds. The tree has a thick, twisted trunk and branches, with green foliage. The cliff is made of dark, jagged rocks. The sky is a clear blue with some white clouds. In the background, there are mountains.

This is an excellent opportunity to expand your current knowledge of management and leadership skills in a thoughtful and innovative way.

For those new to the politics of getting things done
- this is a must.

The course provides a great opportunity for both professional and personal growth. The concepts and theories covered in the class are immediately relevant and useful in tackling day-to-day challenges.

The program is respected in the State.
The credential is legitimate.

Difficult. Lots of work. Worth every bit of the effort. The best opportunity you have to further your career in public service.

It was hard work but worth it. I learned so much!

CPM is the game changer of public administration that Nevada needs.

The program is tough at times, but 20/20 from the end is perfect vision and all of the sweat and tears make me a better manager.

The program is worth the effort. If the principles are applied, it can greatly assist in daily management as well as improve outcomes for your agency.

It is a lot of work and often a lot of hassle, but worth the time and effort if you take it seriously and take the time to learn from and get to know your classmates.

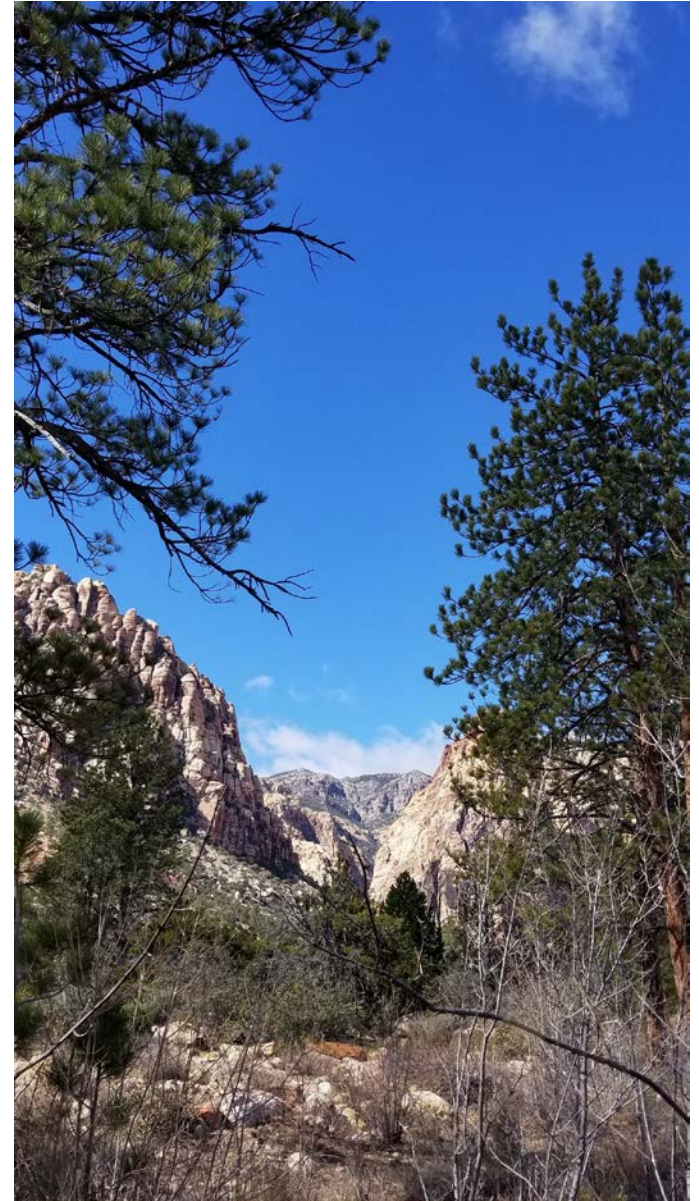

Excellent opportunity for networking with other agencies. Excellent professional development course.

It was a privilege to be in this selected program.

CPM is the best approach program of management to learn techniques to maintain and improve effectiveness and professionalism.

A full moon is visible in the upper right portion of the image, glowing against a dark blue night sky. Below the sky, a dark, silhouetted mountain range stretches across the bottom of the frame. On the left side of the mountain range, a small cluster of communication towers or antennas is visible on a ridge.

The program is fun and informative, with a lot of great topics covered. The networking and relationship building with classmates is one of the best things about the program.

NVCPM is a wonderful program that offers a lot of knowledge that will be beneficial throughout a person's career.

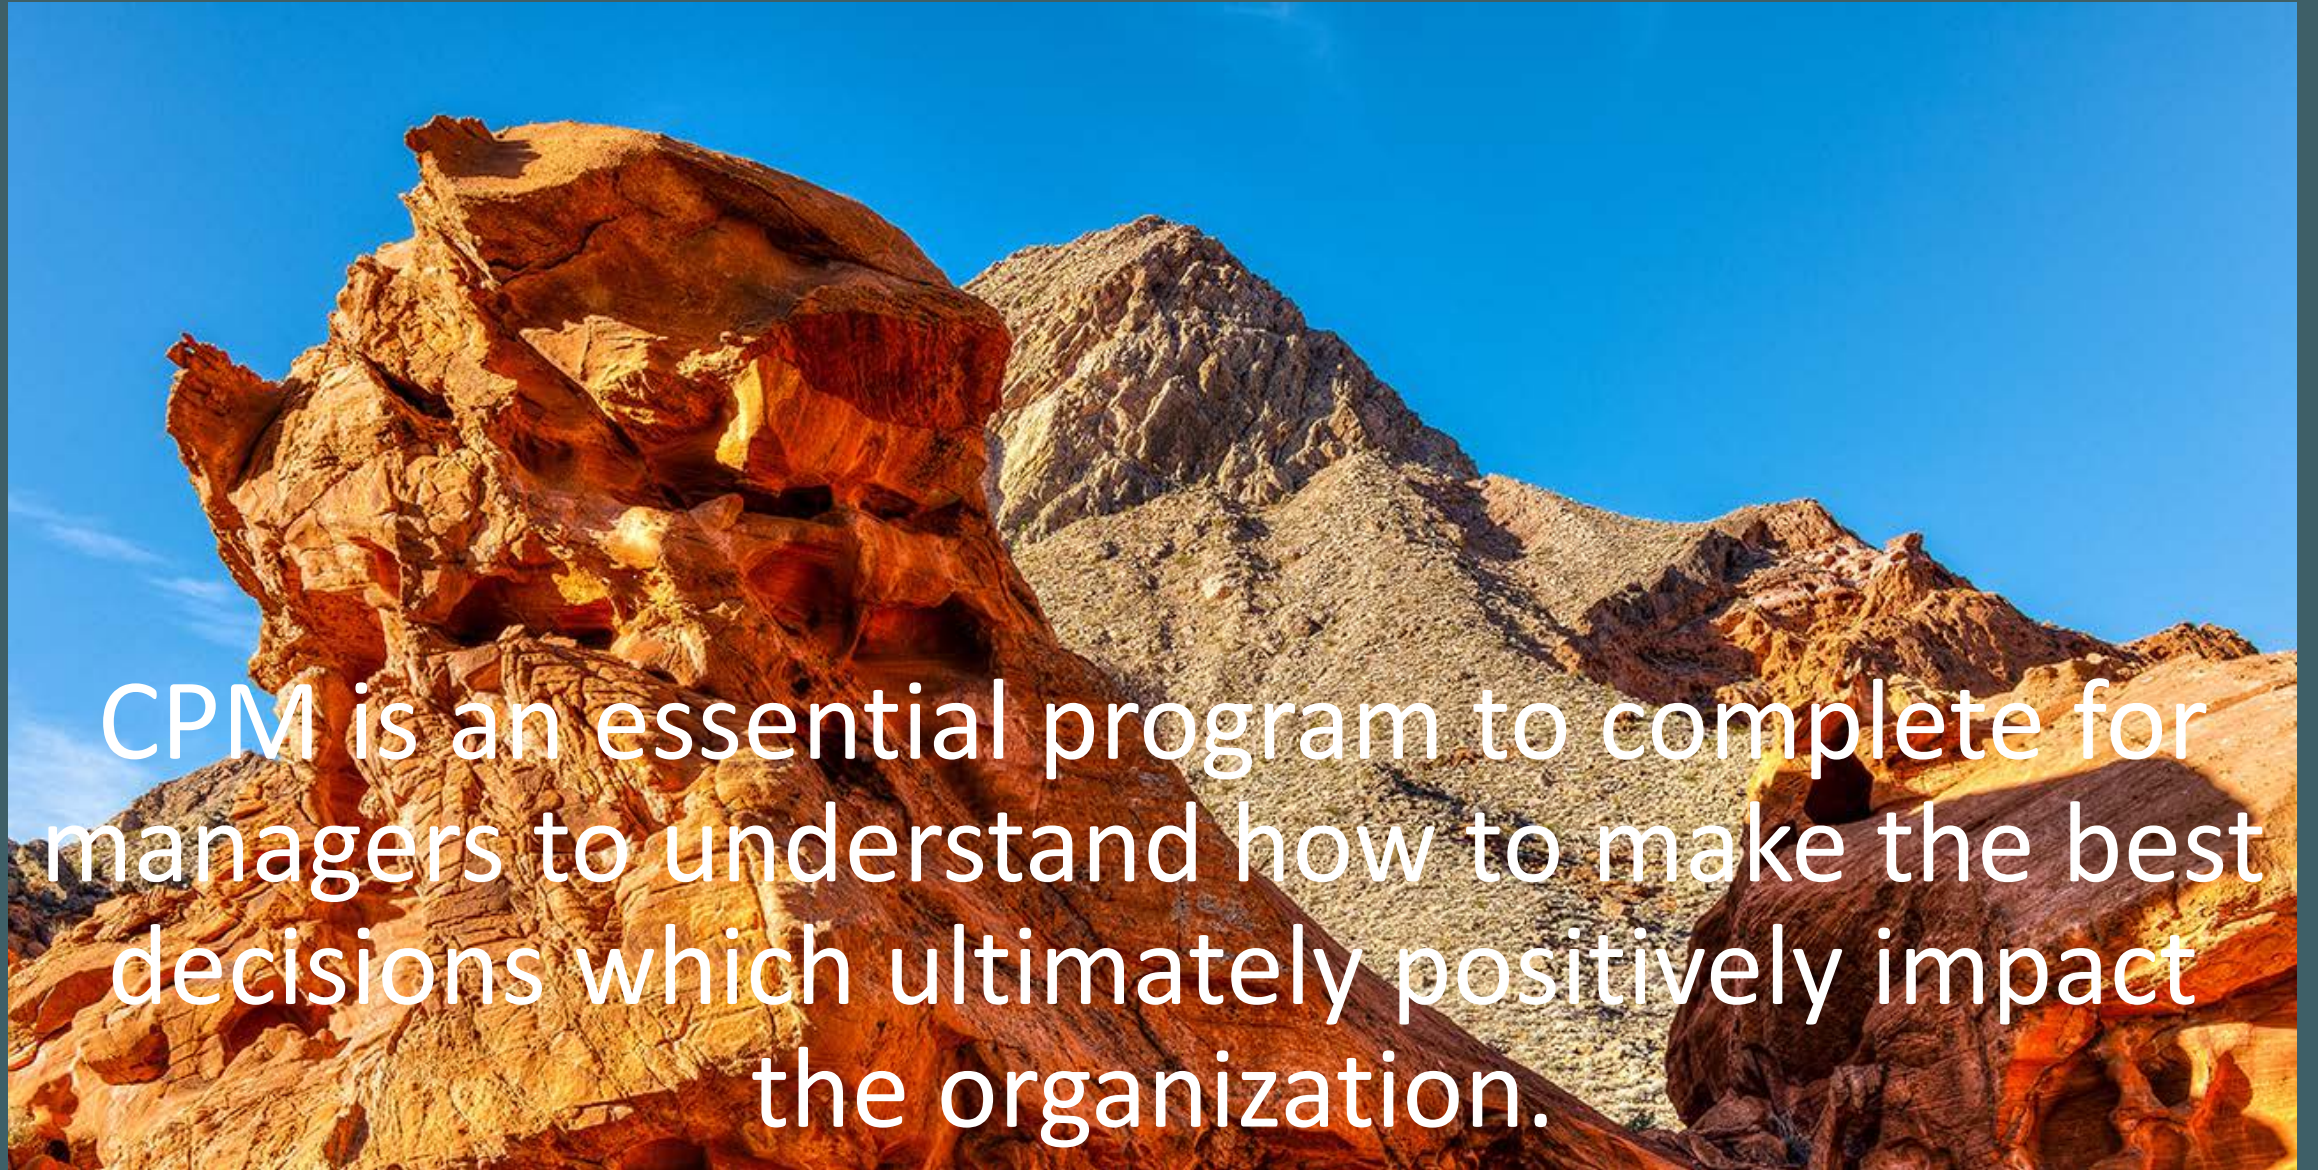

I would recommend this program to anyone who wants to learn and better themselves.

· It provided a broad base of information to assist supervisors with difficult tasks.

You will learn valuable management lessons.

CPM is an essential program to complete for managers to understand how to make the best decisions which ultimately positively impact the organization.

CPM is a great way to be challenged! Be prepared to learn a lot about yourself and your management style.

If you think you're politically savvy, think again! There are blind spots!

NVCPM will give you the tools to understand your organizational culture and climate.

CPM is a great program for anybody wanting to go into management or was recently promoted into management.

I enjoyed the opportunity to network.

NVCPM is worthwhile if you are interested in learning a set of management principles.

Just do it, for yourself and your staff!