

NVCPM Class 20 Journey

You get out of the class what you put into the class. I came out the other side with a new understanding of myself and others.

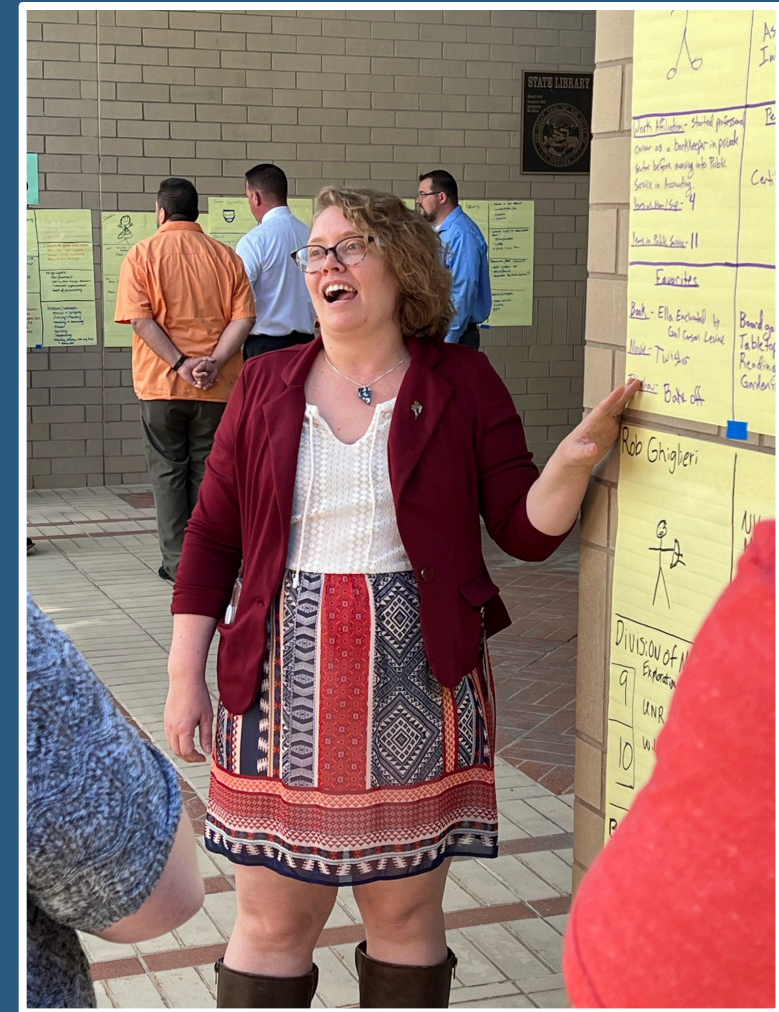

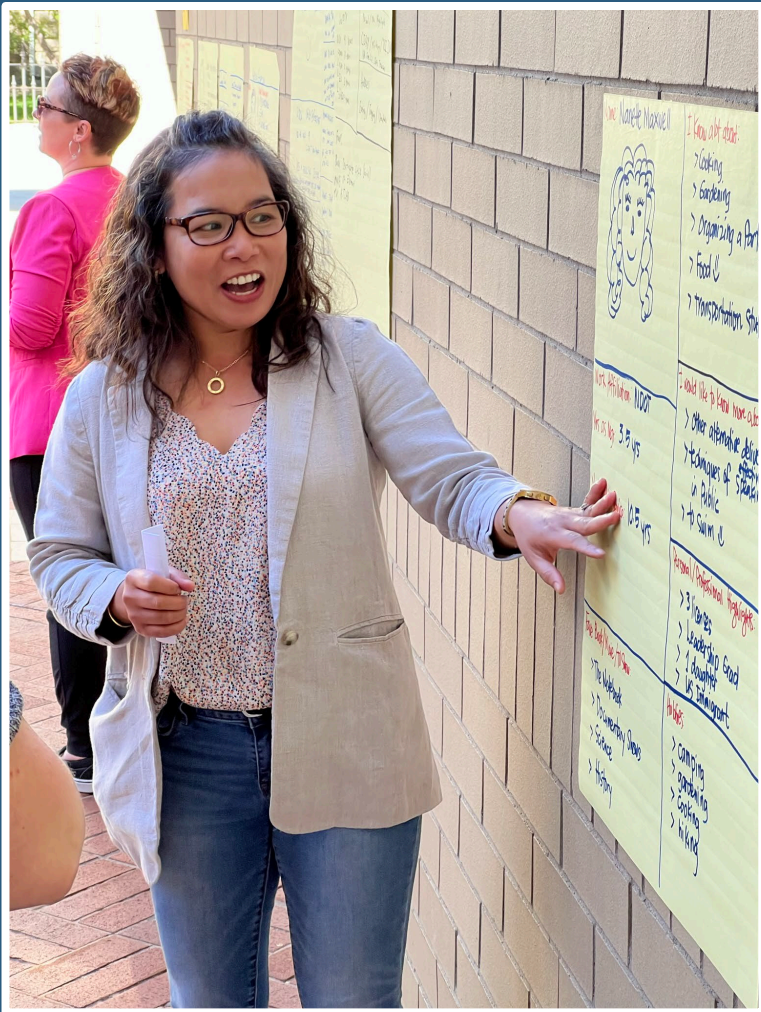

I am grateful for the investment of CPM.

The CPM program not only helped me in developing skills for the workplace, but for life in general. Learning things like my personality type, the way I learn, are things that are essential to know for any human being, and I learned it all in CPM.

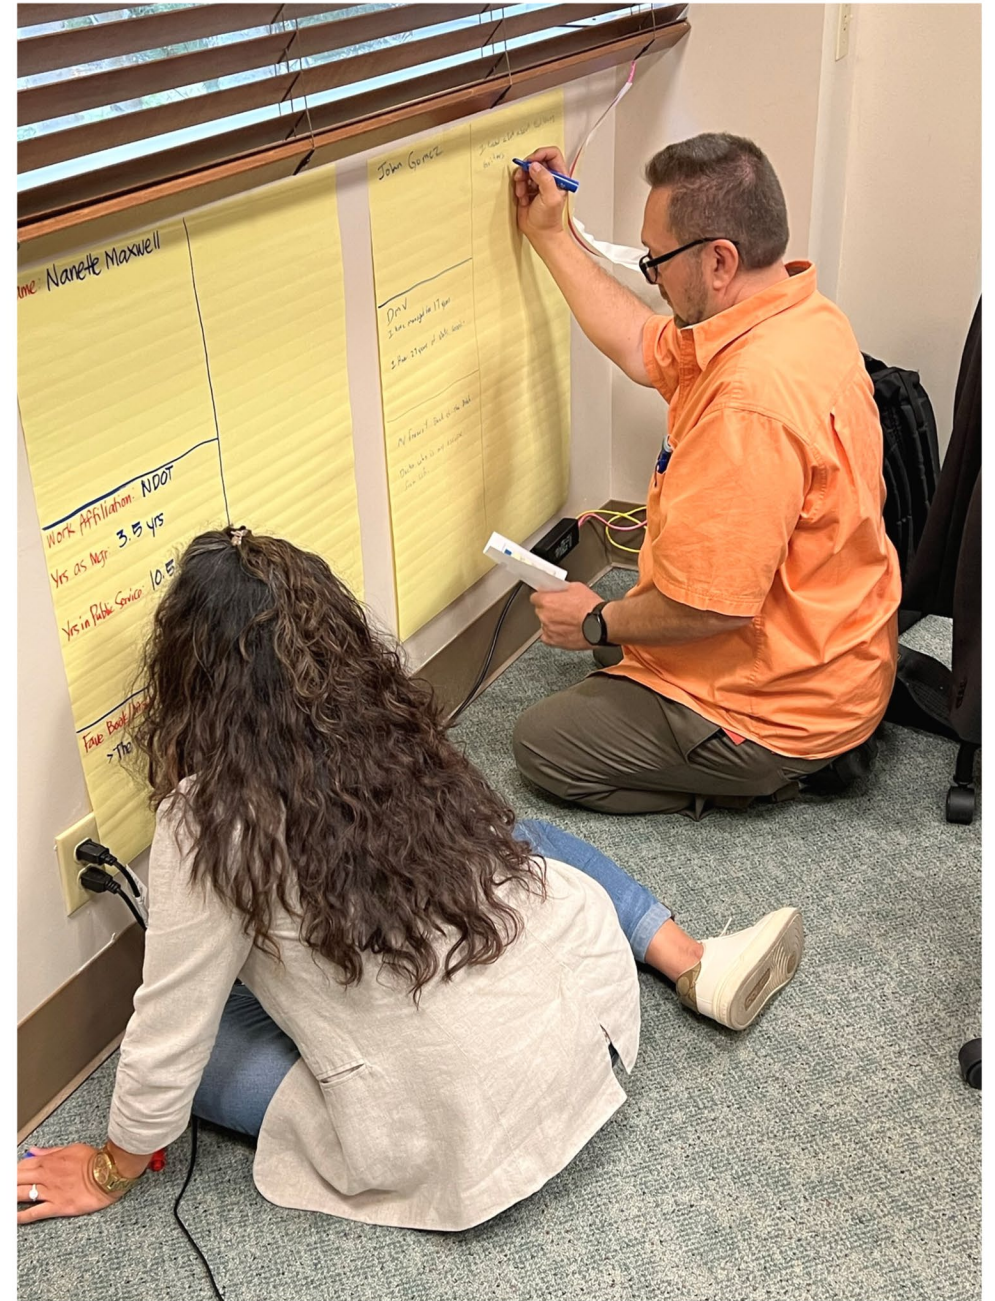

I would say that it is very difficult with competing priorities, however the knowledge and experience gained is invaluable.

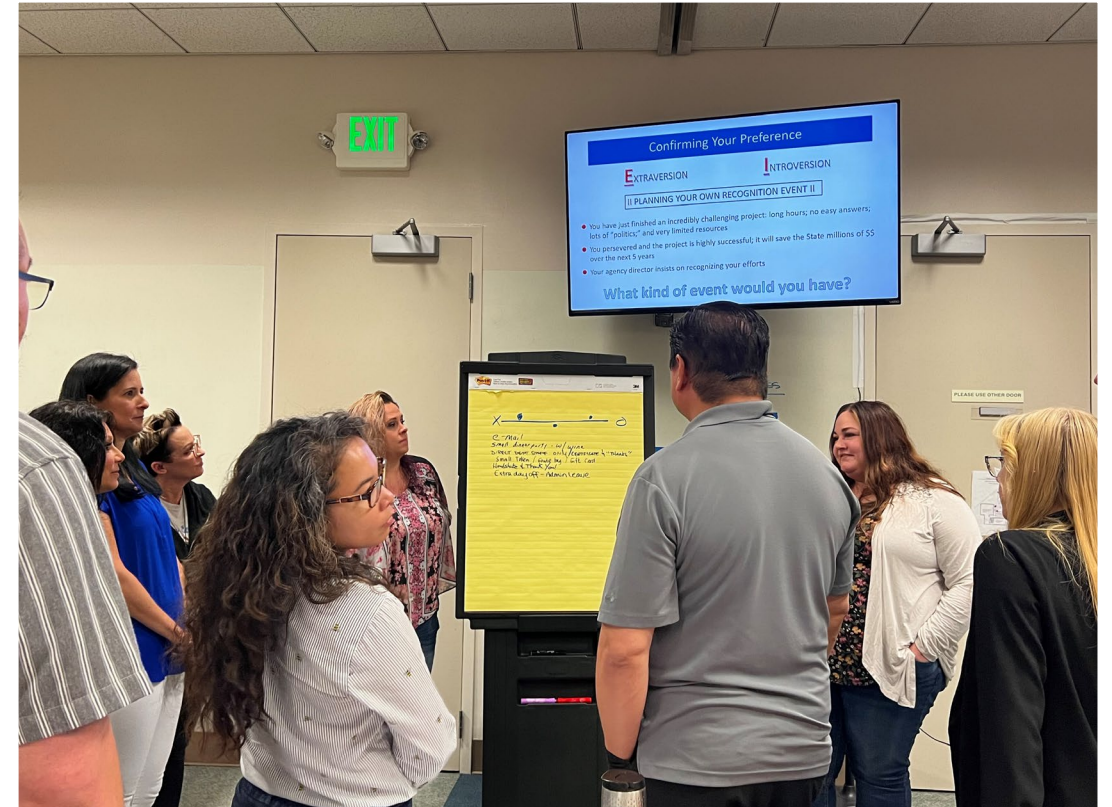

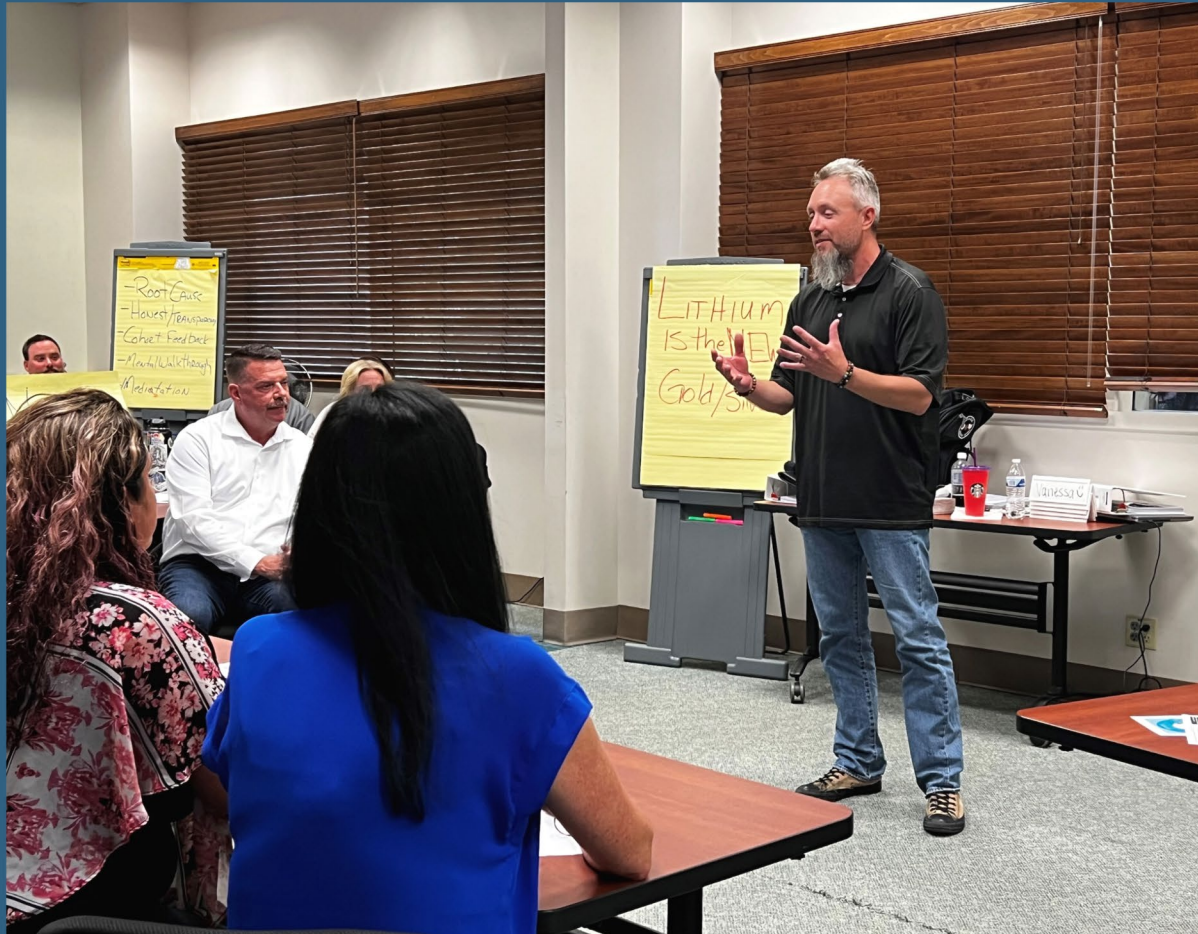

The CPM experience has been incredibly valuable, providing me with the skills to effectively manage projects, lead teams, and make data-driven decisions. It strengthened my ability to collaborate across departments, streamline processes, and address challenges with strategic solutions.

The amount of knowledge I gained about myself in both my personal and professional life was invaluable. The tools we are given for success are priceless.

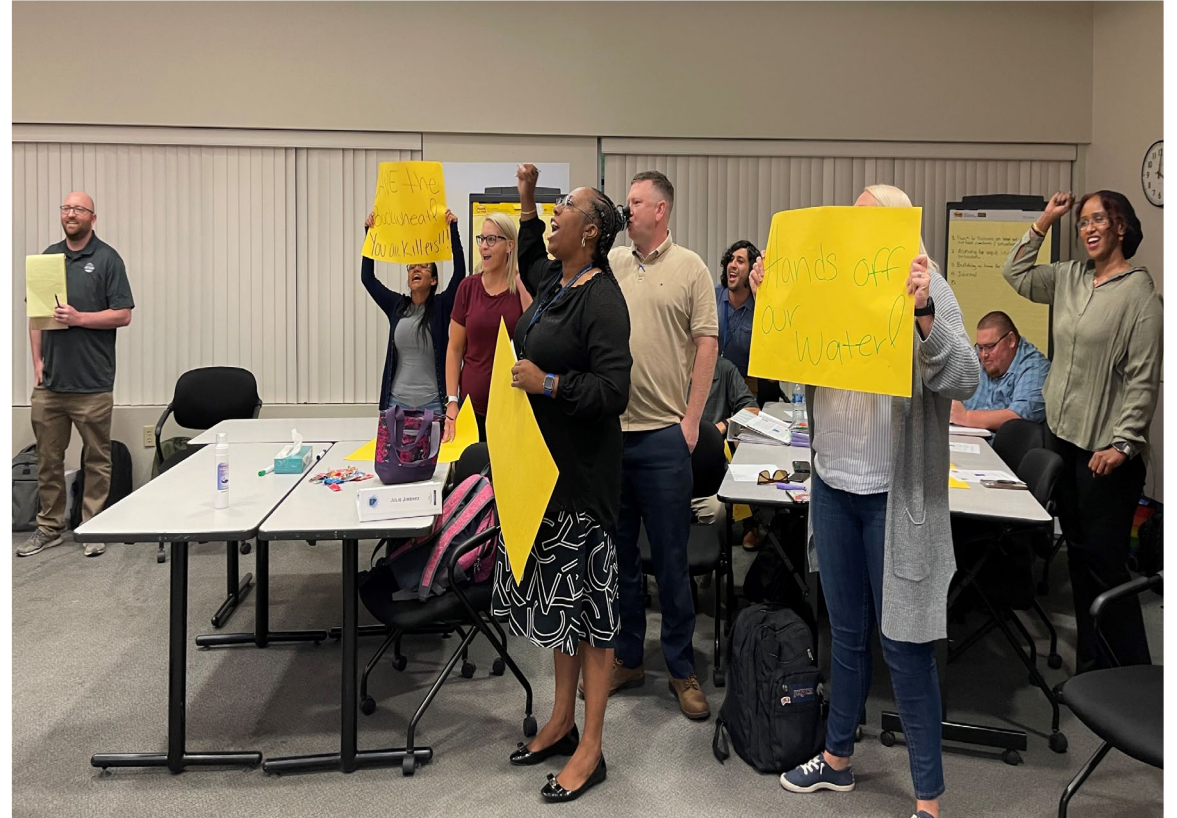

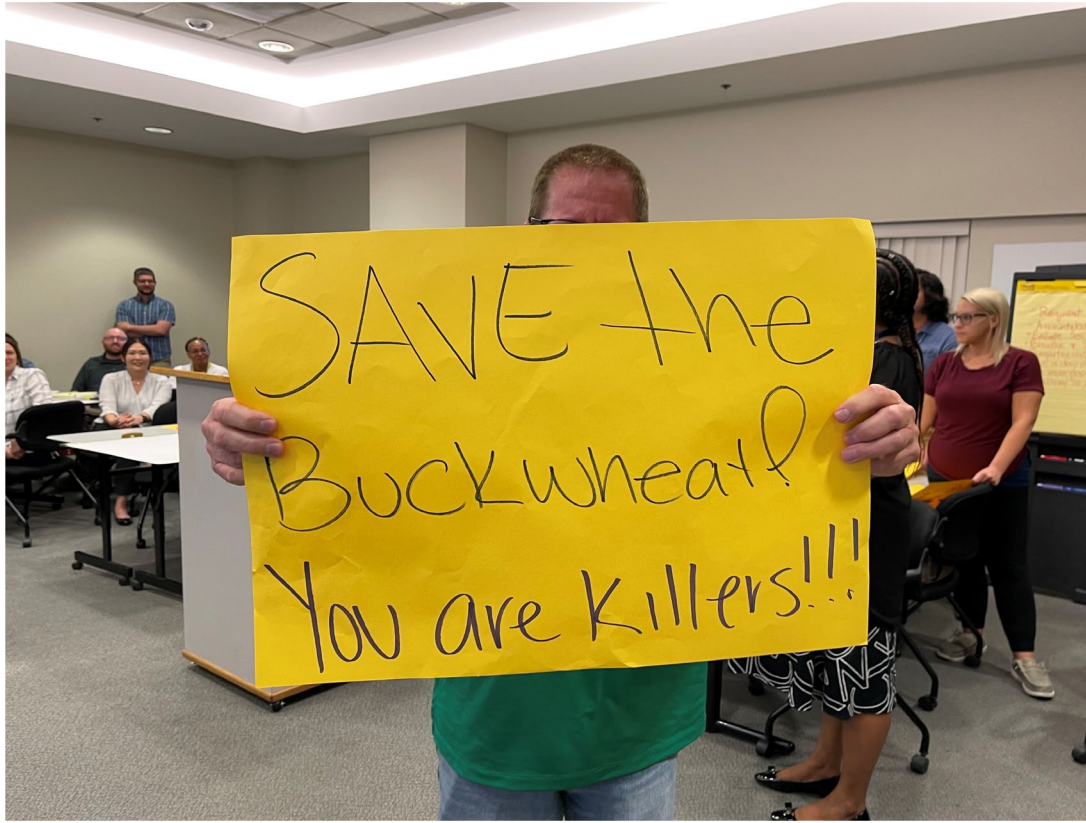

CPM is chalked full of useful knowledge that increases self-awareness and offers management techniques that can be practically applied to improve leadership skills in any setting.

The experience has been incredibly valuable, providing me with the skills to effectively manage projects, lead teams, and make data-driven decisions.

Graduate level instruction in key elements to be an effective manager, and unexpectedly fun at times in delivery of information and lessons.

The course is challenging and time consuming but a wonderful experience that allows you to make new connections, learn about yourself, and discover new tools that can be used both personally and professionally.

The reward and application was immediate and continues to impact not only my professional life, but my personal one as well.

It strengthened my ability to collaborate across departments, streamline processes, and address challenges with strategic solutions.

Overall, it has enhanced my leadership and problem-solving abilities, which I apply daily in my work.

Jump in!

Worth it.

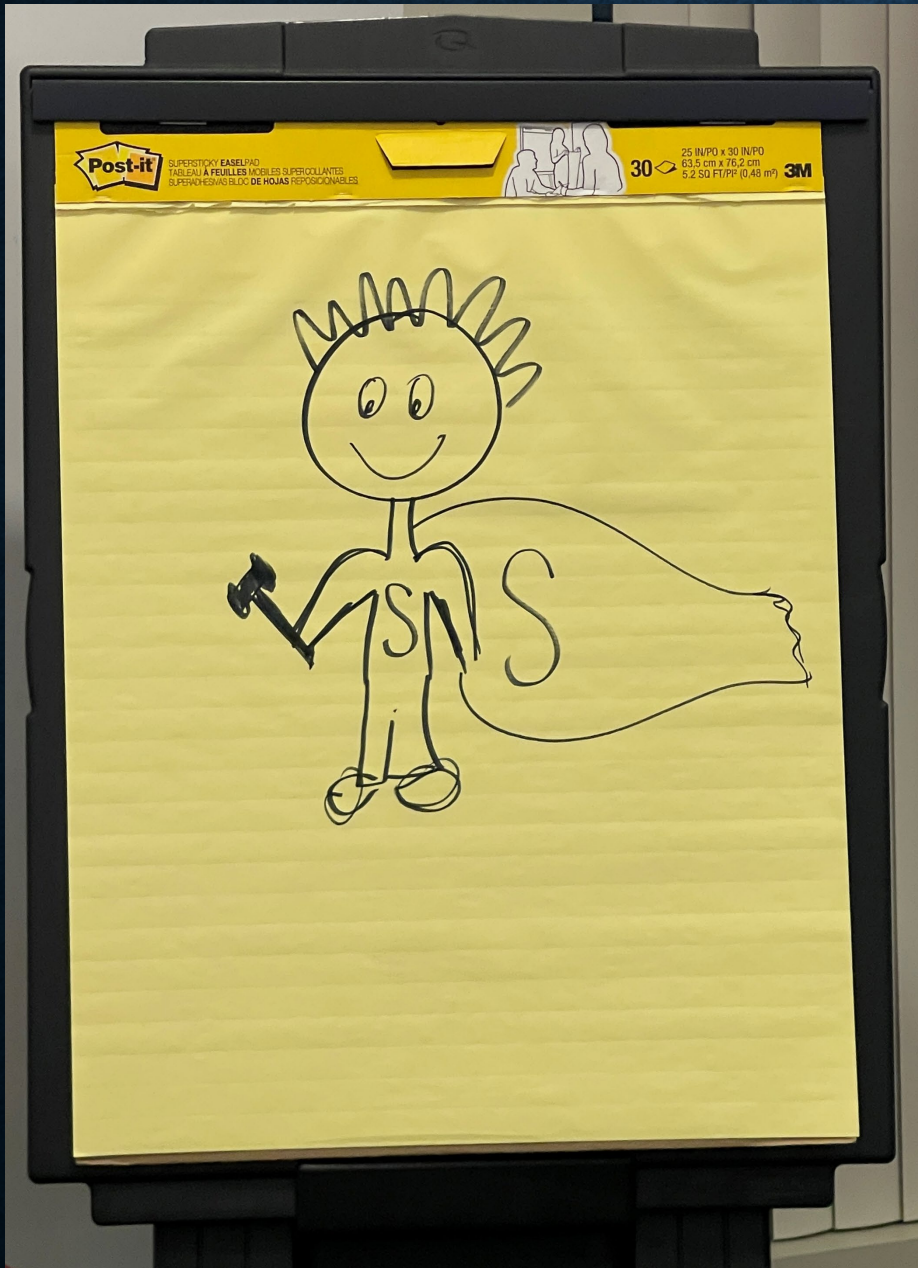

This was an incredible experience with a surprising outcome, as I learned so much about myself.

CPM class is like a reality show for leadership—lots of challenges, unexpected twists, and moments where you question your life choices, but in the end, you come out wiser, more confident, and with a fancy certification to prove it!

The CPM course has been the most challenging yet rewarding experience in my professional development.

My CPM experience was one that I will continue to take with me throughout my career.

It has helped me define what type of leader and manager I am and has connected me to a group of my peers who also valued this same experience.

I would highly recommend this program for both up and coming and seasoned managers -- especially those transitioning from the private sector.

It was excellent, enlightening, and unexpected.

It was a challenging experience.

I am a better leader and manager because of the program, the outstanding instructors, and through peer learning.

The coursework forced me to stretch beyond my comfort zone, developing skills I hadn't considered before.

Incredible program.

I learned a ton and made great friends.

Thank you all for what you do!!!
Keep up the great work!!!

It was very beneficial for gaining tools to become a good manager and learn the entire process to create and implement a large project.

I would encourage anyone wanting to excel in their careers to attend.

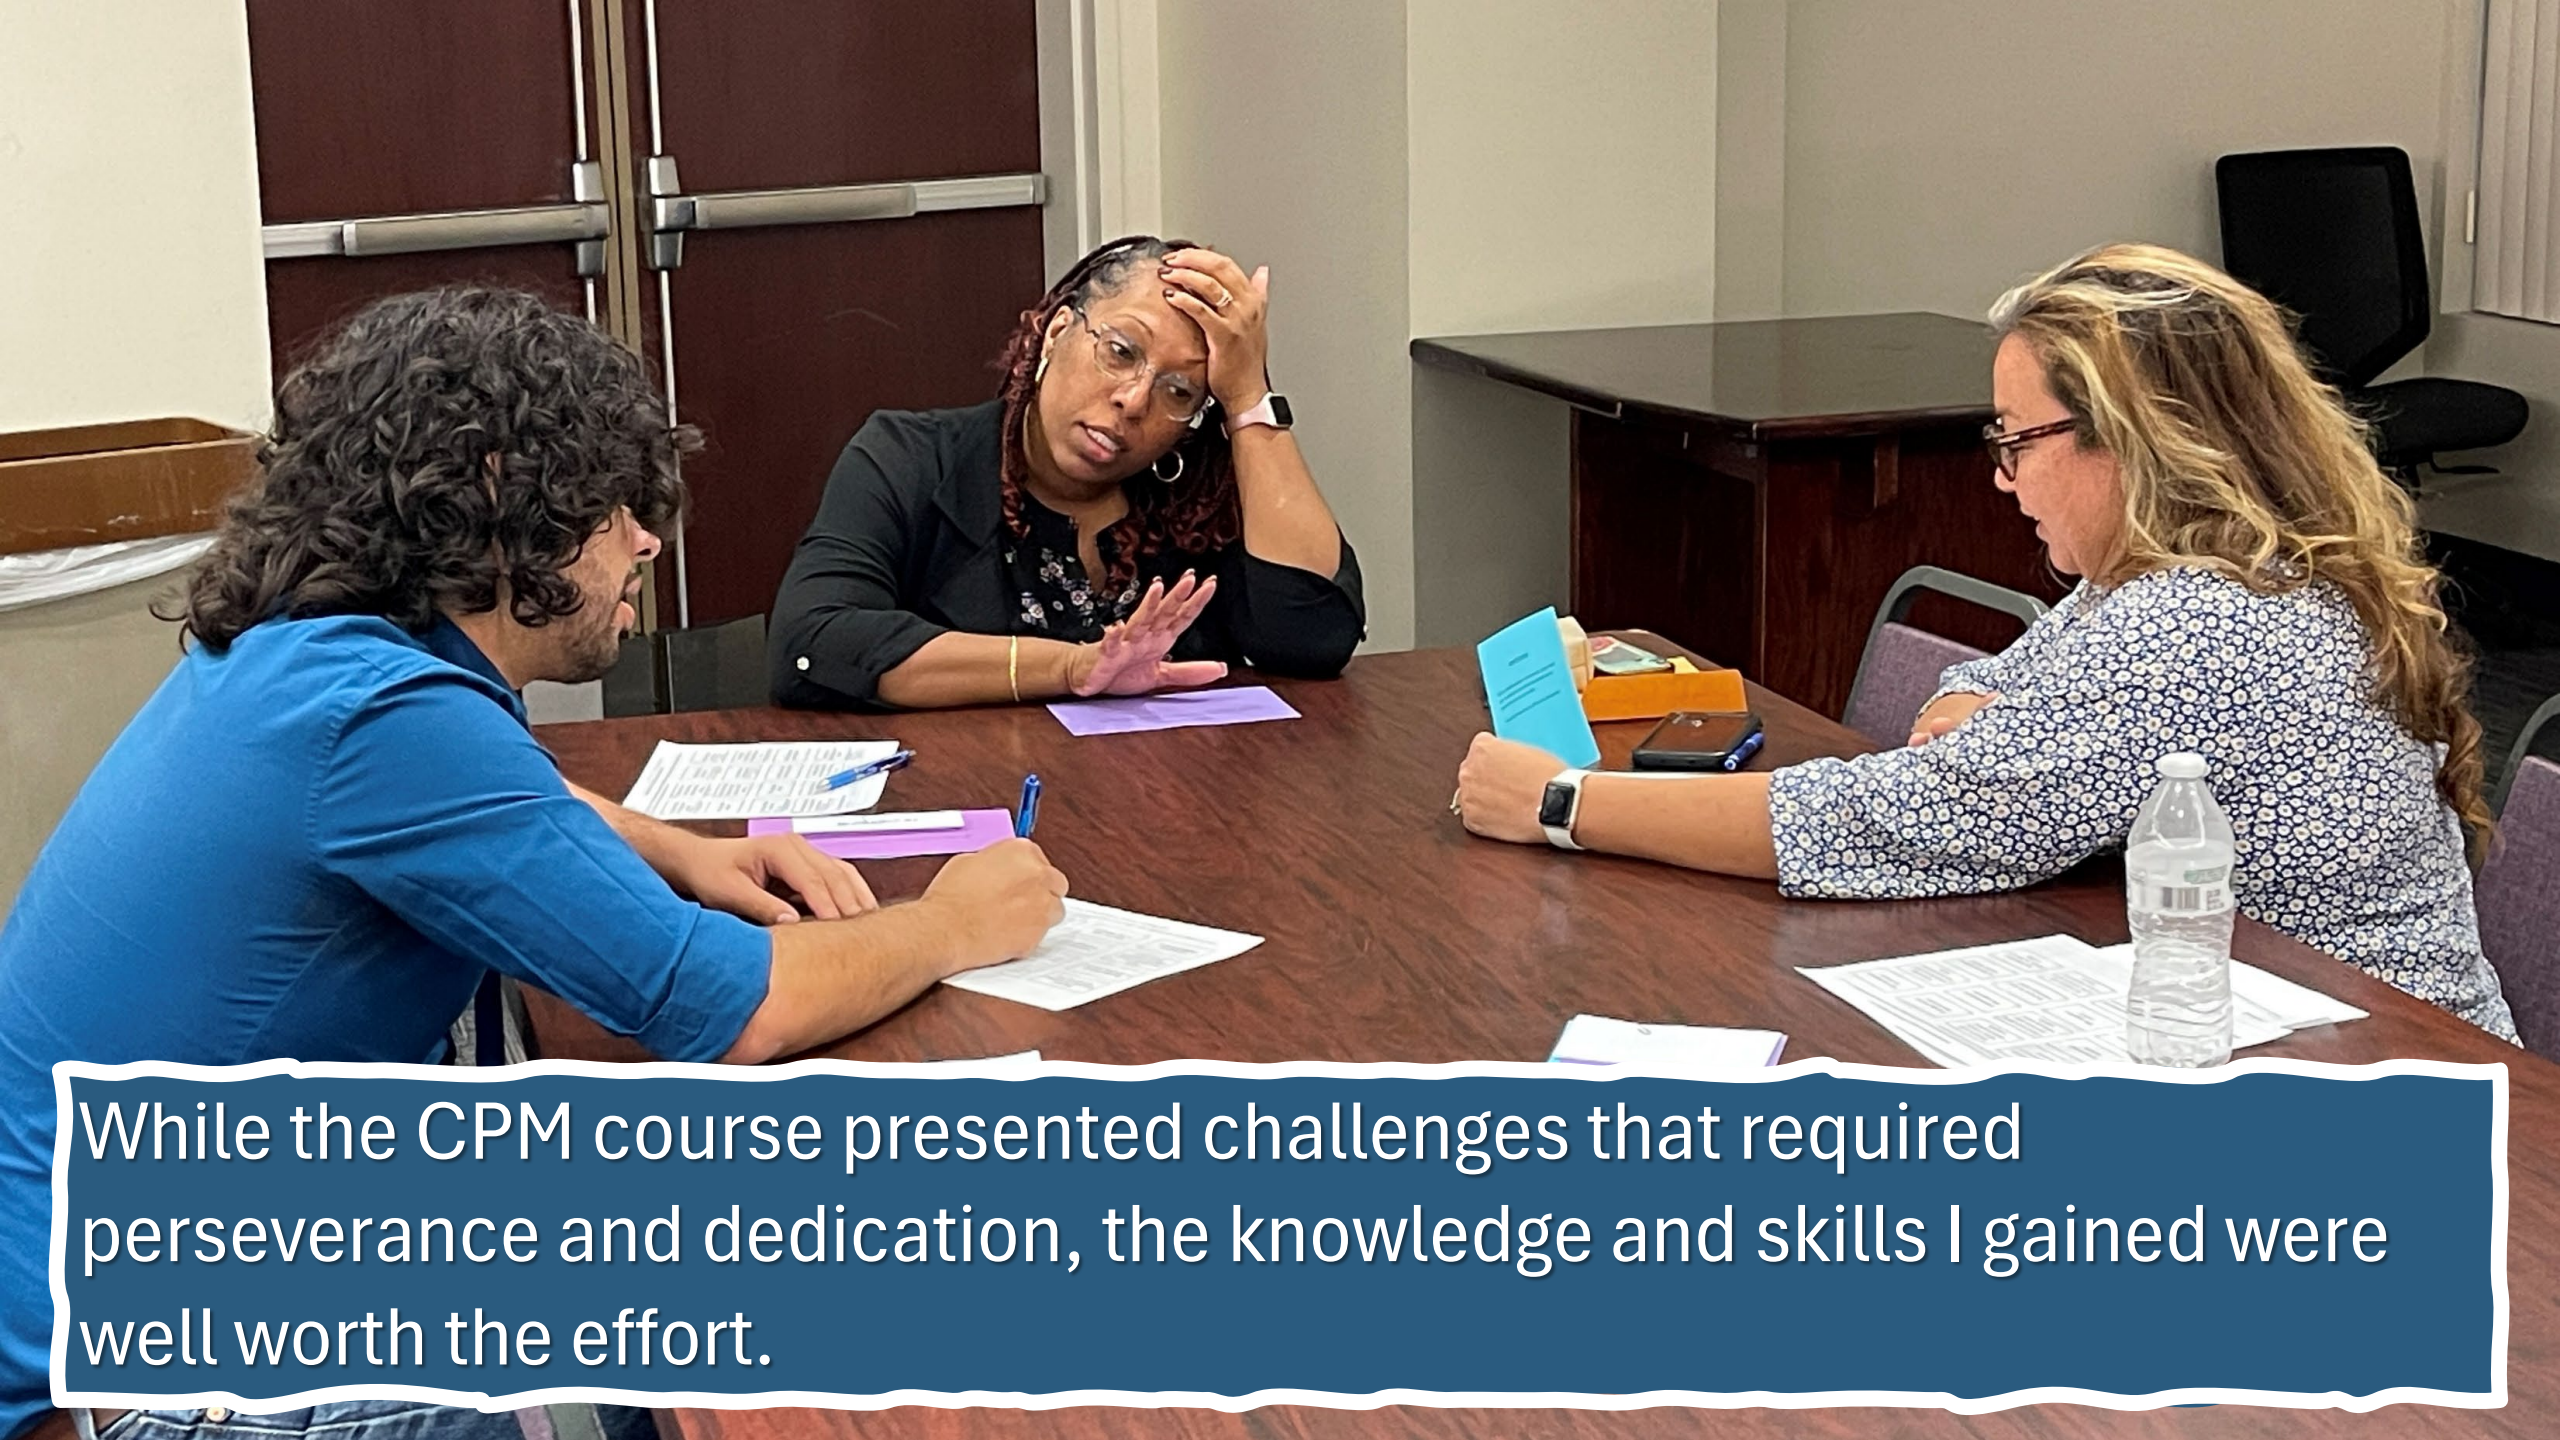

It was inspiring to learn from others' successes and challenges, which added a real-world context to the theories being taught.

What made the experience even more enriching were the discussions and networking with peers and instructors, who shared their experiences and insights.

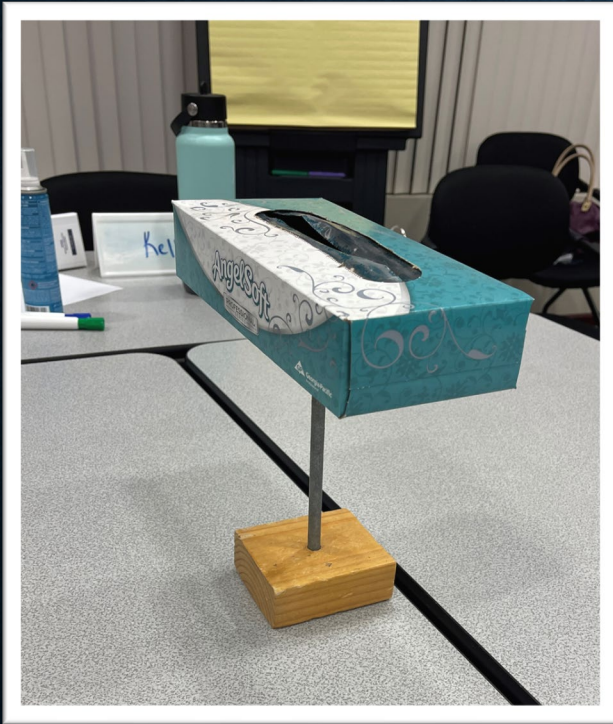

While the CPM course presented challenges that required perseverance and dedication, the knowledge and skills I gained were well worth the effort.

The interactive class experiences were great bonding opportunities with so many unique and talented peers.

Above all,
it was an enjoyable
and exciting journey!

My CPM experience was truly transformative! It not only enhanced my leadership and decision-making skills but also gave me valuable tools to drive efficiency and collaboration in my work.

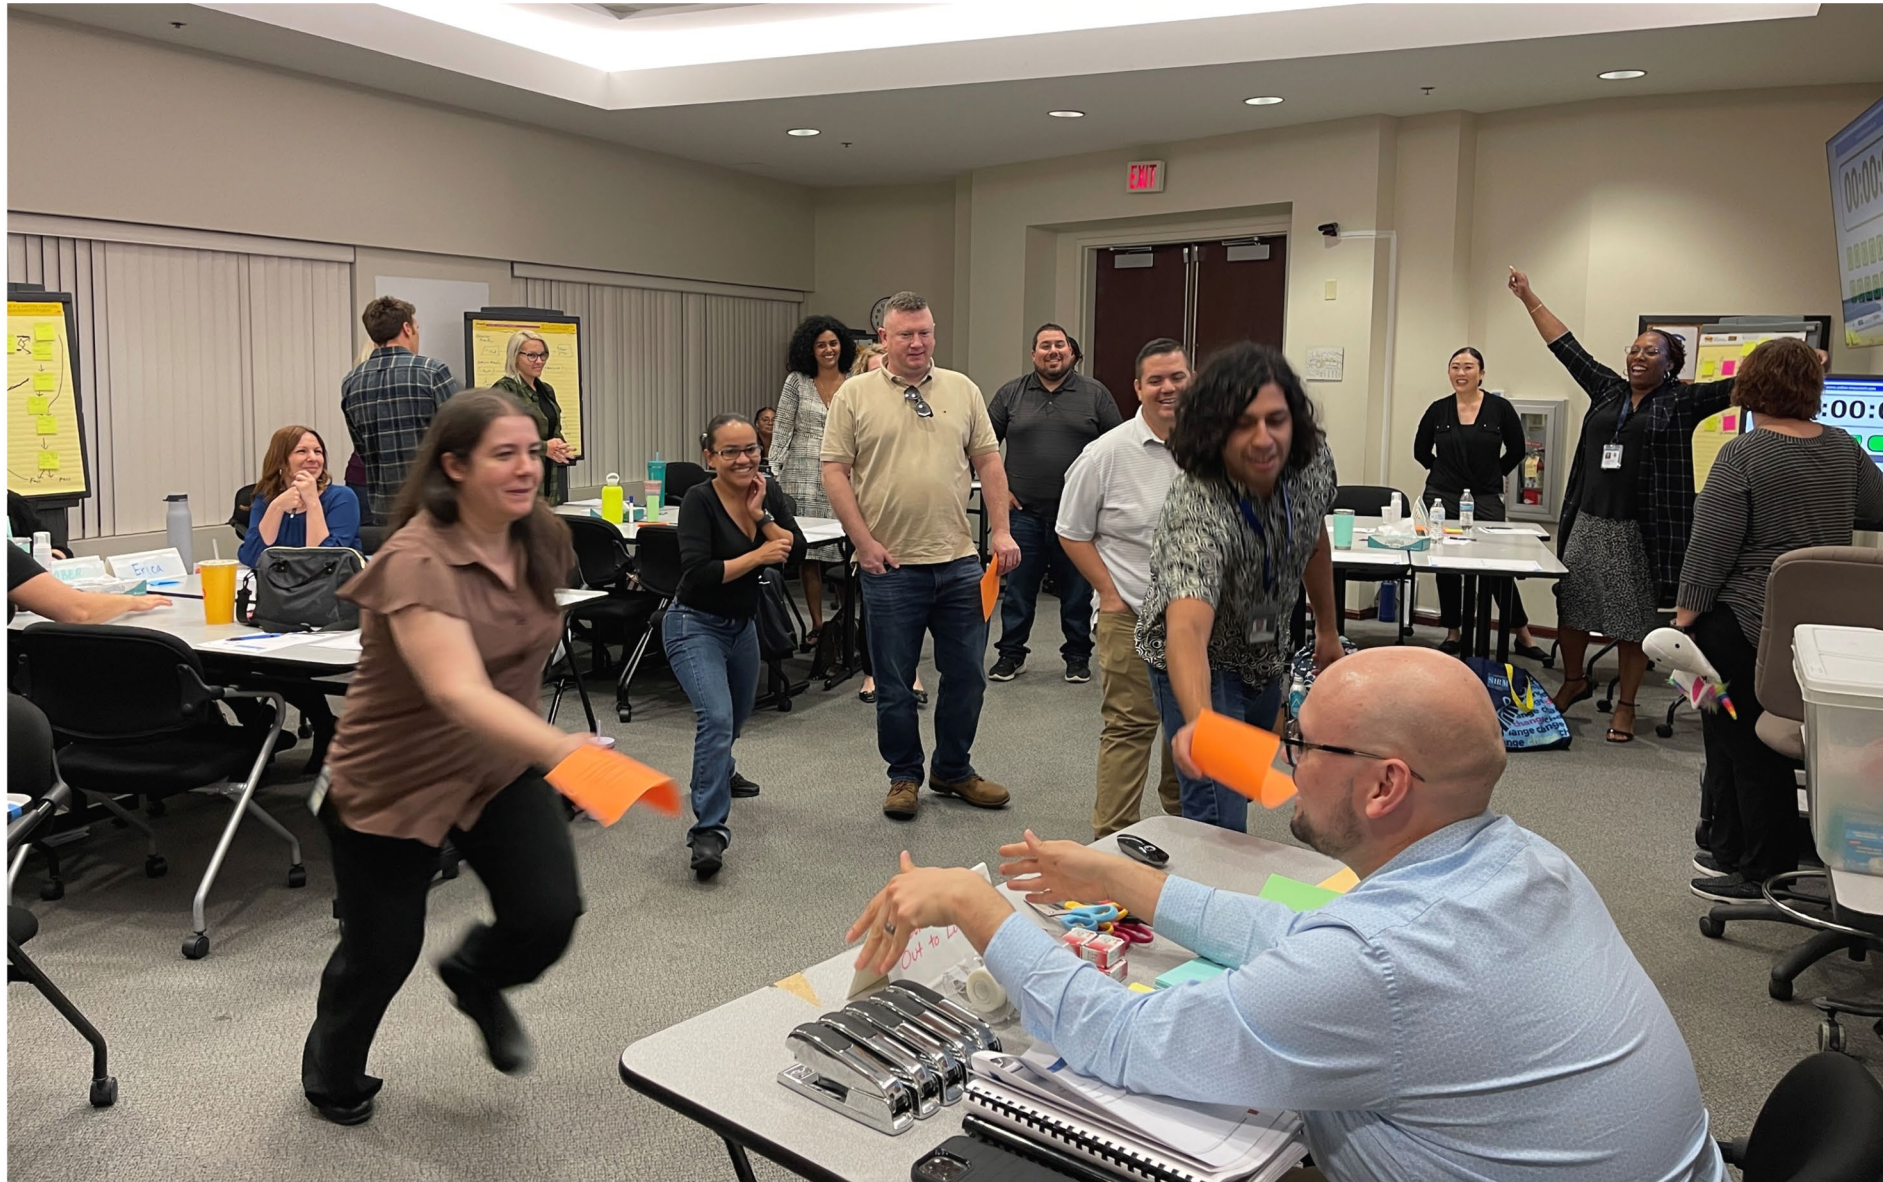

CPM is a tough long road, but incredibly rewarding. It was invaluable to help hone my managerial "soft" skills.

CPM provided me with the opportunity and ability to see myself and my world in exciting and challenging new ways.

It was engaging, thought provoking, challenging and fun!

It was a deep dive and a big commitment,
but I would do it again in a heartbeat.

Enlightening.

The CPM class was a valuable enrichment opportunity to strengthen my leadership skills and expand my knowledge base in many areas of government systems.

An awesome educational experience for those who lead or are looking to lead professionals in the public sector.

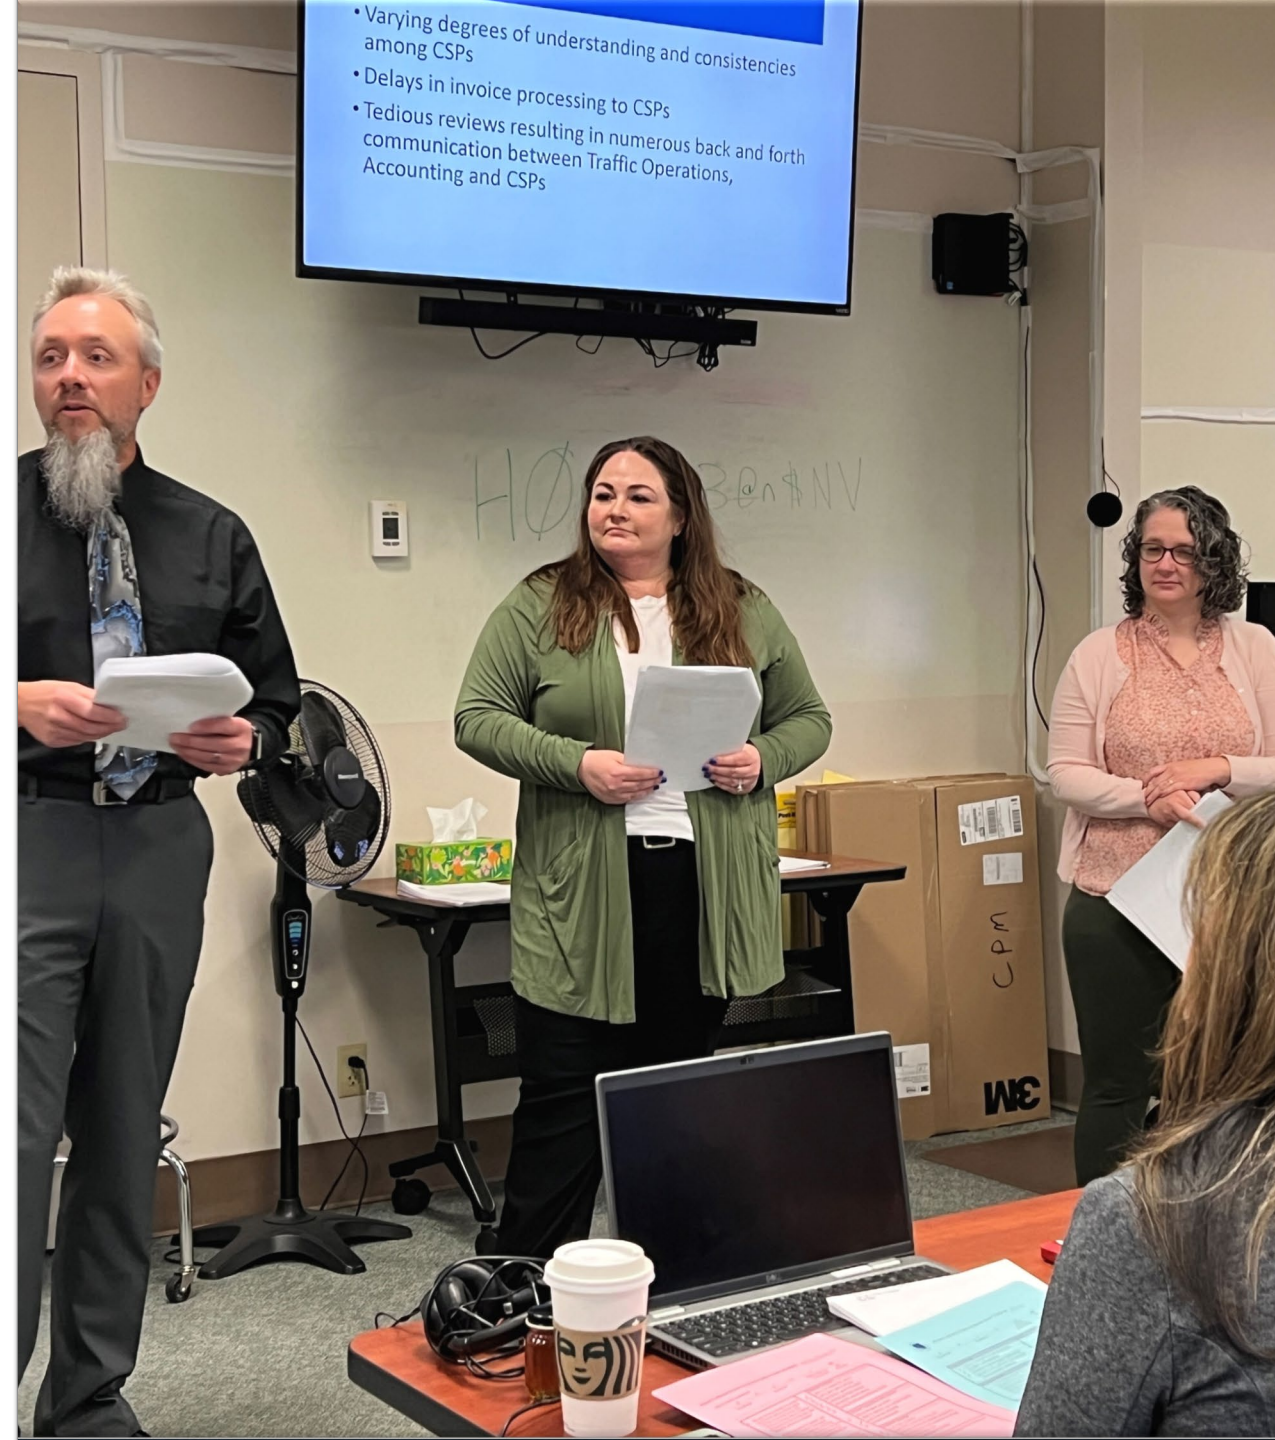

This experience was wholly enriching. The concepts and practical application will far transcend these past 18 months.

It was an incredibly rewarding journey that I highly recommend to anyone looking to elevate their impact in public service!

The experience has been wonderful and enlightening.

The connections we have made along the way together have proven to be invaluable.

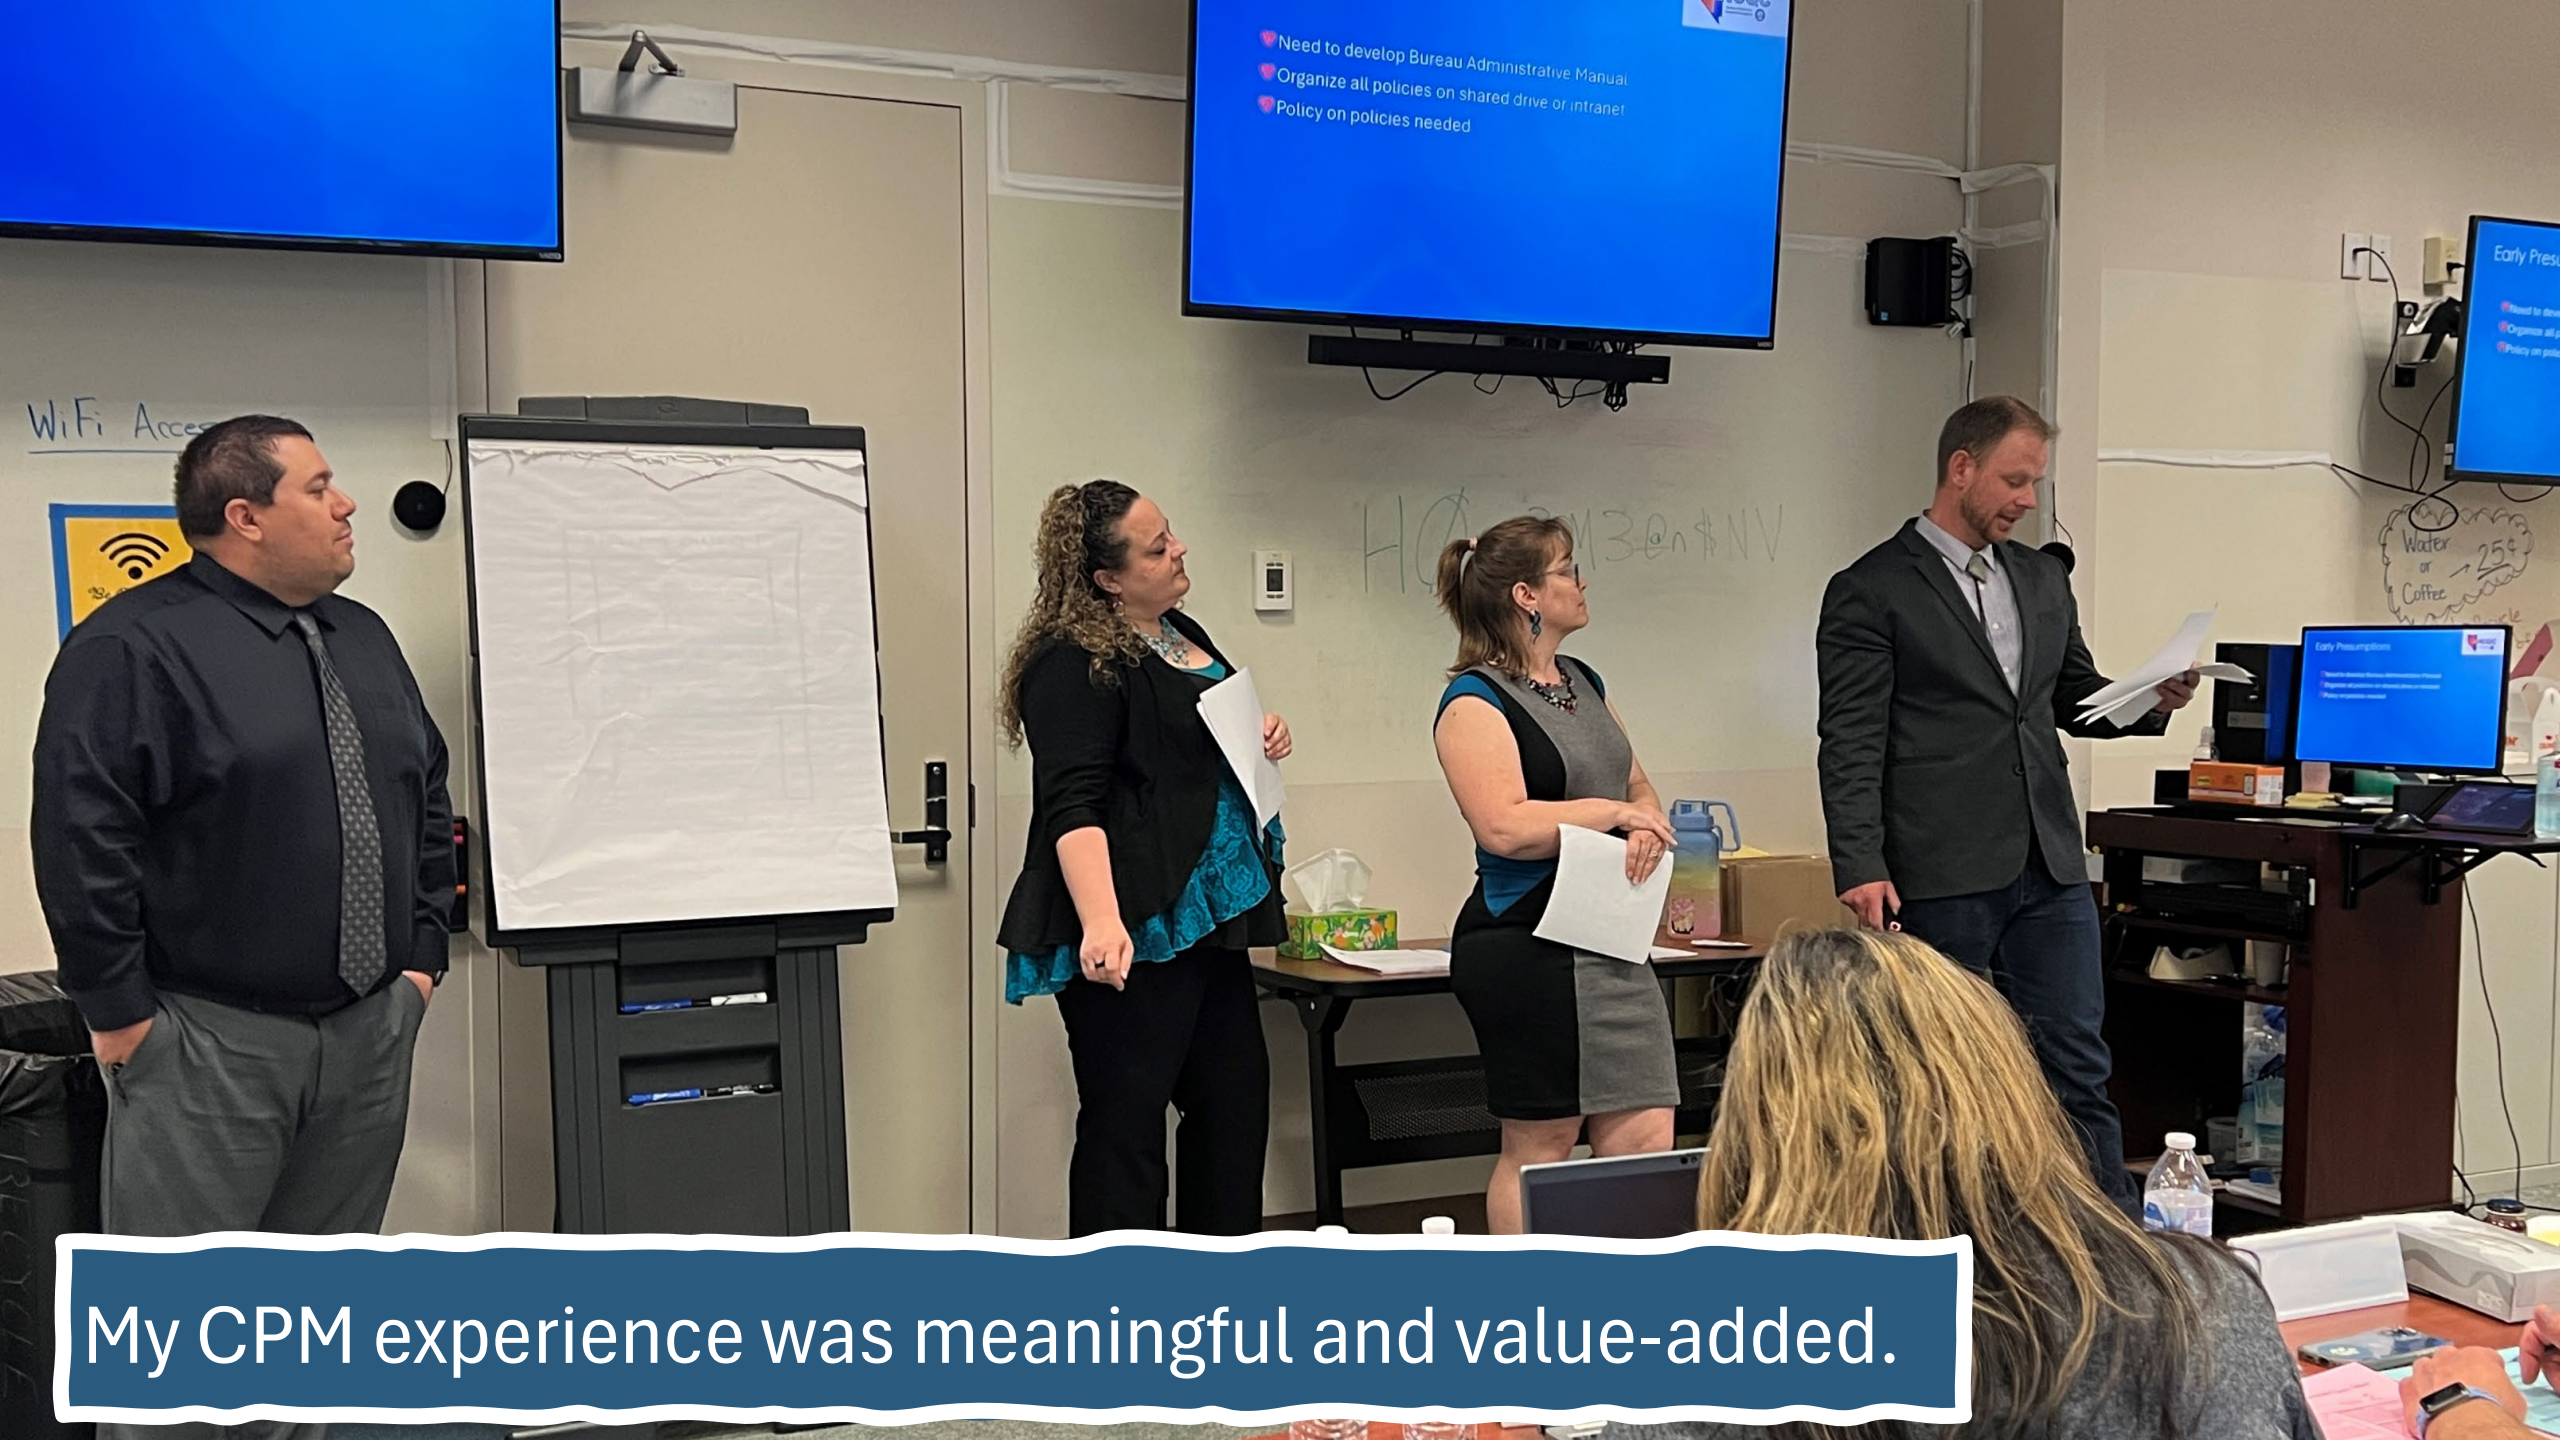

This was a remarkable experience and is great for managers, managers in-training and those looking to move forward in their careers.

The course not only equipped me with a structured approach to managing programs but also built my confidence in making critical decisions.

My CPM experience was meaningful and value-added.

It was challenging at times but well worth the effort. I have benefited tremendously.

Not only did I learn more than I can describe, but I also feel prepared with the tools to continue to grow as a leader in challenging times.

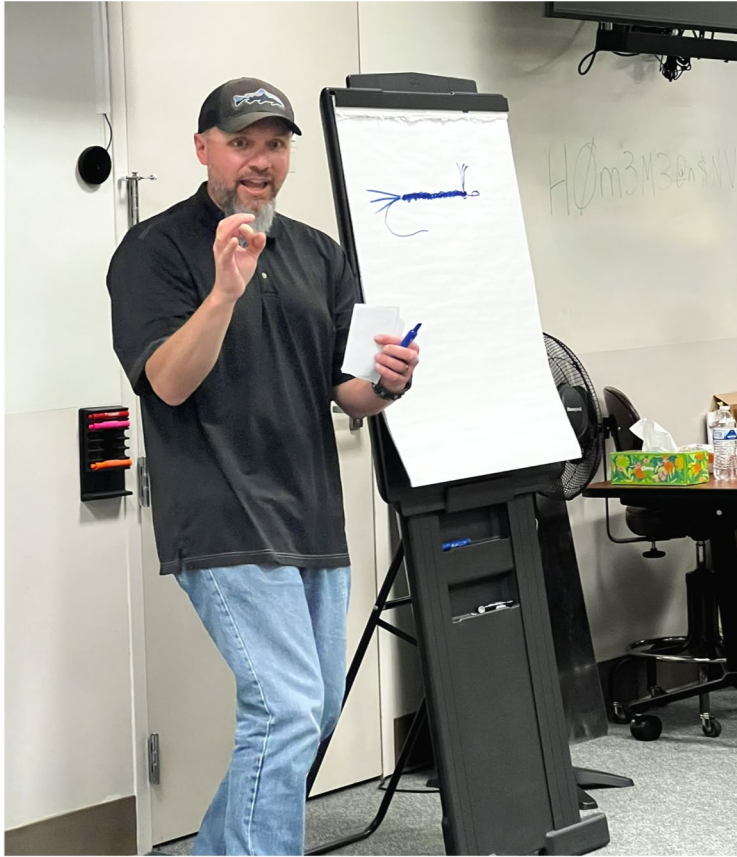

CPM was incredibly positive and enlightening. Interacting with a diverse range of personalities was invaluable, helping me learn how to push both myself and others toward achieving common goals.

CPM has given me a wealth of knowledge; the course gave me the tools and techniques that I will take with me and use throughout the rest of my public services career.

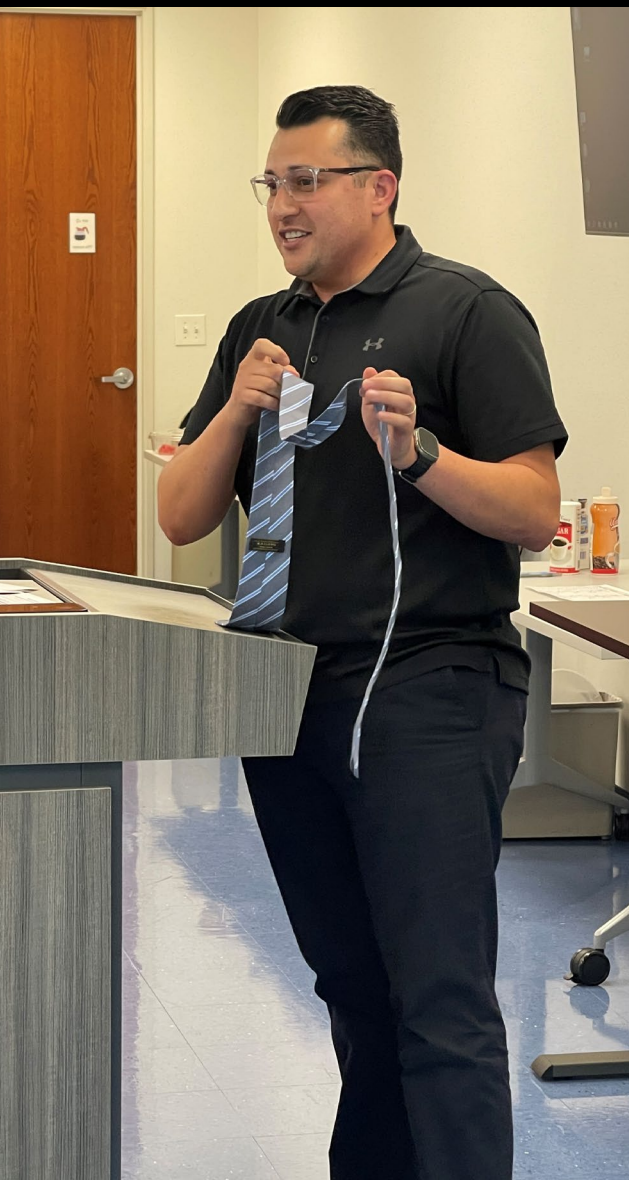

The program challenged me to grow, connect with inspiring peers, and apply what I learned in meaningful ways.

I evolved from having a handful of skills to possessing a comprehensive toolkit that will help me navigate challenges and drive change in the public sector.

This experience was amazing!!

CPM has really helped prepare me for managing employees and equipped me with tools and concepts that I would otherwise not have been exposed to.

CPM was a great experience for me. As a naturally introverted person, who had also never managed an employee before partaking in CPM, the program has given me a lot of personal growth.

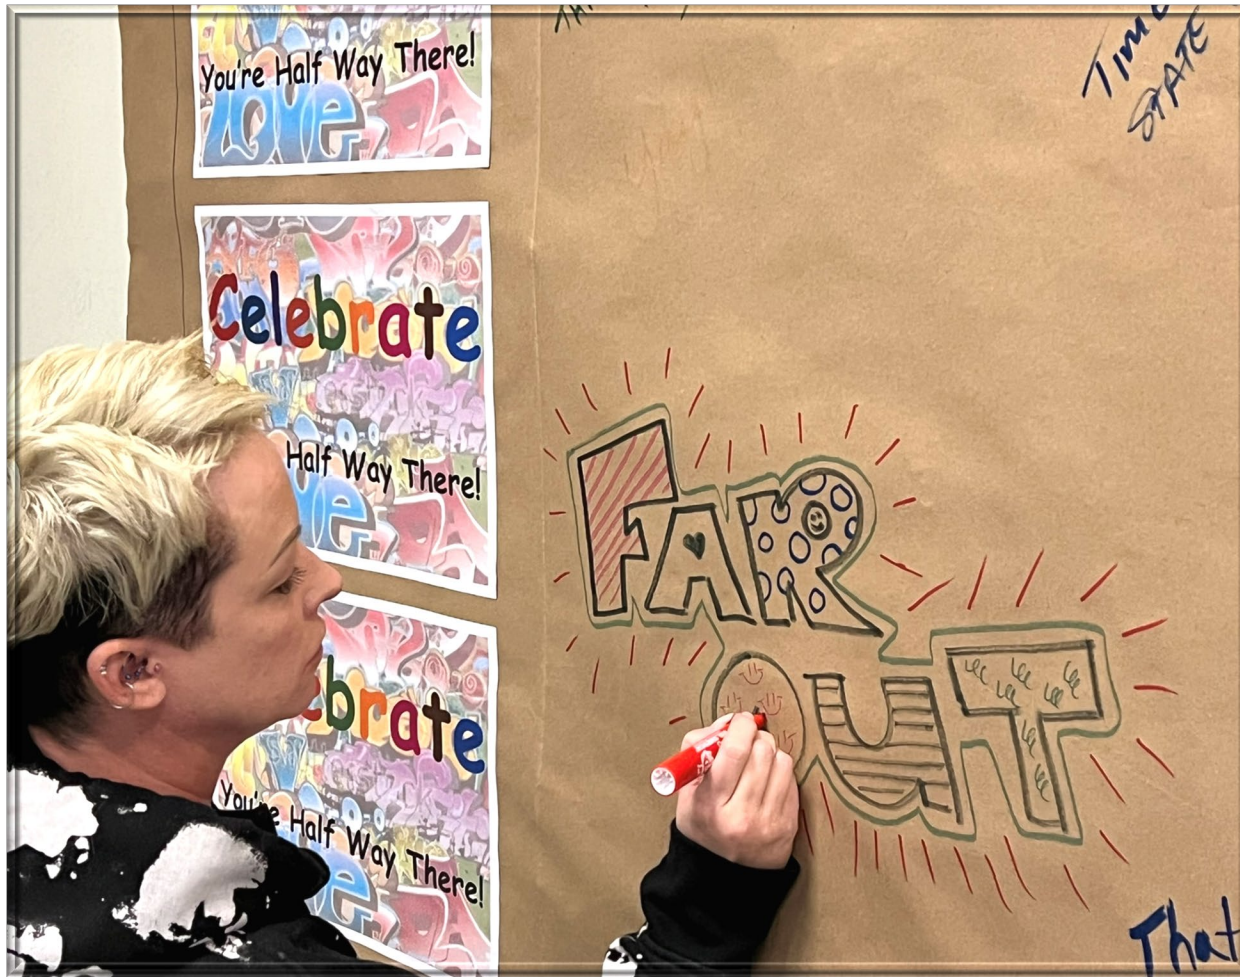

It was apparent that the instructors put a lot of time and effort into making this program worthwhile.

The best overall training offered by the State.

It was a challenging adventure that stretched my abilities and taught me how to be a better manager.

The network and tools I acquired through my participation assists me in both professional and personal growth.
