The Class 17 journey...
It taught me how to be a better communicator and enabled me to influence multiple audiences across my organization.
Be prepared: it's a lot of work, but worth it and rewarding.
The camaraderie experienced during these past two years enhanced my learning and was greatly appreciated.
CPM is a well put together and thorough program that can help further develop your management skills, expand your network and increase your ability to apply these skills with the public.
It's a challenging but very rewarding program.
It teaches you all the things that are required to make your office function.
The CPM program had a positive impact that created great camaraderie among fellow students and work team members for my project.
The class will provide you with tools and techniques that will challenge you and aid you in your career.
The training is highly interactive and well researched.
Many of the skills you may recognize from active managers, but you will learn the how and why such approaches work and how to appropriately implement them.
The NVCPM program helps to foster critical thinking, which is essential in the contemporary world.
This course provides substantial resources to improve management skills in the public sector, including a place to practice and hone your skills.
The best supervision and management training the State of Nevada has to offer. Well worth the time and effort spent.
The NVCPM Program is a commitment and hard work but is the most worthwhile professional development I have taken in years!
It is definitely a worthwhile program and there are tools that will be useful throughout the remainder of my public service career.
This class was very informative and great for networking. The material will be useful throughout my career.
NVCPM is a leadership program. You will learn, discuss and complete exercises beginning with the ideologies of leadership and how to apply what you have learned.
It's hard work and at times stressful, but it's worth the effort. I use the lessons frequently in my job. Best part of the experience is the people you meet.

If you are interested in furthering your career in the public sector, taking on the challenge of leadership, growing professionally, and making government work better, CPM is one of the most impactful programs offered.
Anyone who leads a team or manages a program needs to enroll in this class.
Capstone's start
It's here.

It's all rainbows
and lollipops.
The CPM program was very overwhelming for me but with the support from everyone in the class and in my life, I was able to make it through, and the feeling of accomplishing this is unbelievable.
The building blocks from this program are unmatched; anyone wishing to lead in Nevada MUST attend this program.
The teachings will continue.

It’s a great learning experience and hard, but in the end worth it to learn what I learned from the instructors.
The only easy day was yesterday.

Hang in there Baby!
The CPM program provides a 360-degree view of management and leadership skills.
CPM was a learning experience I hope to never forget!
I would recommend this program to anyone who wants to sharpen management skills and develop a supervisory toolbox.
You will meet some amazing people.
CPM is an extremely hard and rewarding program that benefits you in ways you don't even realize until it is over.
NVCPM is a wonderful opportunity and one of the most valuable programs that I have participated in for Nevada's future leaders.
It’s a great program; it gives you tools to resolve problems and to communicate in a more efficient way with your team.
This program is not meant to be the end-all for being a great manager in State service but meant to expand upon a current skillset and help sharpen tools.
NVCPM has provided me lifelong lessons and tools to better understand and work with those around me to solve challenging and complex management problems.
In the program you meet new people and start to network with them; you can bounce questions off each other if you need advice about how to handle a situation.
Prepare to be challenged, revealed, uncomfortable and engaged. Walk away with awareness, insight, discipline and friendships.
It requires dedication but it's worth it at the end.
The CPM program teaches you the proper tools and techniques you need to be a better manager.
