All parties may consult with and receive the assistance of their department personnel offices or the Division of Human Resource Management in resolving a complaint. Division of Human Resource Management contact information can be obtained from our website www.hr.nv.gov or by calling (775) 684-0135.

Except for complaints submitted to the Employee-Management Committee, the time limit for filing a complaint and for taking any action required by either party in the complaint procedure may be extended by the mutual agreement of the parties.

After a complaint has been submitted to the Employee-Management Committee, either party may choose to request a resolution conference. A resolution conference is an informal meeting between the parties with the assistance of a neutral facilitator, provided by the Division of Human Resource Management, who is not affiliated with either of the parties. The resolution conference option provides an additional opportunity for the complaint to be discussed and for possible solutions to be considered. If the Employee-Management Committee has notified the parties of the date on which it will hold a hearing to consider the complaint, the request for a resolution conference may not be submitted less than 15 working days before that date.
