EXPLANATIONS OF PROPOSED CHANGES
LCB File No. R015-21

Section 1: NAC 284.5811 Family and medical leave: Maximum amount in 12-month period; eligibility; use.

This amendment, proposed by the Division of Human Resource Management (DHRM), will default the State's Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) eligibility criteria to the criteria outlined in the U.S. Department of Labor's FMLA regulations. "Paid status" is defined in NAC 284.0742 as including leave with pay (not including catastrophic leave) and leave without pay pursuant to NAC 284.580. However, the FMLA federal regulations base the hours requirement on the "hours of service" during the 12-month period immediately preceding the employee's leave. The current method of FMLA eligibility calculation may, in certain circumstances, allow an employee to qualify for leave, based on this regulation, prior to qualifying based on the federal regulations. If an employee is provided FMLA leave early and then not granted FMLA-protected leave during the period the employee qualifies under the federal FMLA regulations, it could leave the State open to review by the FMLA regulatory body, the U.S. Department of Labor.

PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE PERSONNEL COMMISSION

LCB File No. R015-21

July 20, 2021

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 284.065, 284.155, 284.345, 284.350, 284.355, 284.3626 and 608.0198.

A REGULATION relating to state personnel; revising eligibility requirements for certain state employees to take family and medical leave; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the Personnel Commission of the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration to adopt regulations for attendance and leave in the various classes of employee positions in the public service of the Executive Department of the State Government. (NRS 284.345) Existing regulations: (1) adopt by reference the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601 et seq. (FMLA); and (2) provide that an employee in the public service who is entitled to take leave pursuant to the FMLA is limited to a total of 12 weeks of such leave during a rolling 12-month period. (NAC 284.062, 284.581, 284.5811) To calculate eligibility for leave pursuant to the FMLA, each hour that an employee is in paid status in the 12-month period immediately preceding the leave must be considered as time worked. (NAC 284.5811) An employee’s paid status includes time that an employee is on: (1) leave with pay, except catastrophic leave; or (2) leave of absence due to a fiscal emergency. (NAC 284.0742) This regulation eliminates the provision that requires each hour that an employee is in paid status in the 12-month period immediately preceding the FMLA leave to be considered as time worked. As a result, the determination of whether an employee is entitled to take leave pursuant to the FMLA is determined by the provisions of the FMLA, which exclude time that an employee is on leave. (29 U.S.C. § 207)

Section 1. NAC 284.5811 is hereby amended to read as follows:

284.5811 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an employee who is entitled to take leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act is limited to a total of 12 weeks of such leave during a rolling 12-month period. The rolling 12-month period is measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act.

2. An employee who is entitled to take leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act to care for a covered service member is limited to a total of 26 weeks of such leave during a single 12-month period.

3. ~~[/] To calculate eligibility for leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act, each hour that an employee is in paid status in the 12-month period immediately preceding the leave must be considered as time worked.~~

~~[/] 4.~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsections ~~[/] 4~~ and ~~[/] 5~~, an employee who meets the requirements for eligibility for and who is taking leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act must exhaust all the accrued sick leave, accrued annual leave, accrued compensatory time and catastrophic leave that the employee is eligible to use based on the nature of the absence before using leave without pay. Any accrued sick leave, accrued annual leave, accrued compensatory time, catastrophic leave and holiday pay to which the employee is entitled pursuant to NAC 284.255 runs concurrently with the leave granted pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act if the employee is otherwise eligible for that sick leave, annual leave, compensatory time, catastrophic leave or holiday pay.

~~[/] 4.~~ If an employee is absent from work as the result of a work-related injury or illness and meets the requirements for eligibility for leave due to a serious health condition pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act:

(a) Any amount of time that the employee is absent from work during that period will be designated as leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act; and

(b) The employee may elect to use paid leave or leave without pay for the portion of time that he or she is not being compensated for the work-related injury or illness.

~~{6.}~~ 5. If an employee is absent from work as the result of a non-work-related injury or illness, the employee is receiving compensation for the injury or illness from a disability benefit plan and the employee meets the requirements for eligibility for leave due to a serious health condition pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act:

(a) Any amount of time that the employee is absent from work during that period will be designated as leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act; and

(b) The employee may use paid leave for the time that the employee is being compensated for the non-work-related injury or illness if the employee has entered into an agreement with the appointing authority to use the paid leave. If the employee and the appointing authority have not entered into such an agreement, the employee may not elect to use and the appointing authority may not require the employee to use paid leave for that time.

~~{7.}~~ 6. If an employee who is a victim of an act which constitutes domestic violence or whose family or household member is a victim of an act which constitutes domestic violence, and the employee is not the alleged perpetrator, is absent from work and meets the requirements for eligibility pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act, any amount of time that the employee is absent from work during that period will be designated as leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act.

~~{8.}~~ 7. An appointing authority may require an employee to provide medical or other appropriate documentation to support his or her need for leave pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under existing law: (1) it is the policy of this State to ensure that its employees do not engage in sex- or gender-based harassment; (2) sex- or gender-based harassment is a form of unlawful discrimination; and (3) it is prohibited for a state employee to engage in sex- or gender-based harassment against another employee, an applicant for employment or any other person in the workplace (Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 51, chapter 321, Statutes of Nevada 2021, at page 1912)

Section 1 of this regulation defines “sex- or gender-based harassment.” Section 2 of this regulation makes a conforming change to indicate the proper placement of section 1 in the Nevada Administrative Code.

Existing regulations require an employee to attend a certified class concerning the prevention of sexual harassment within 6 months after the initial appointment of the employee to state service. (NAC 284.496) Section 3 of this regulation instead requires an employee to attend a certified class concerning the prevention of sex- or gender-based harassment within 30 days after his or her initial appointment to state service.

Sections 6-8 replace the term “sexual harassment” with “sex- or gender-based harassment” in certain provisions relating to investigations of discrimination by the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration.

Existing regulations authorize an appointing authority to impose harsh disciplinary sanctions on, or dismiss, persons who commit sexual harassment. (NAC 284.771) Section 9 of this regulation instead authorizes an appointing authority to impose harsh disciplinary sanctions on, or dismiss, persons who commit sex- or gender-based harassment. Section 9 further requires that any disciplinary sanction imposed by an appointing authority for sex- or gender-based harassment be proportionate to the violation.

Section 10 of this regulation repeals the definition of the term “sexual harassment.”

Regulation Small Business Impact Statement

Section 15 of Article 15 of the Nevada Constitution requires the Legislature to provide for a State merit system governing the employment of employees in the Executive Branch of State government and in 1969 the Legislature provided for such in NRS 284. Additionally, NRS 284.013 provides limitations to which employees of the Executive Branch are covered by NRS 284. NRS 284.065 authorizes the Personnel Commission to adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Due to the limitations of the Nevada State Constitution and NRS 284, the Division of Human Resource Management staff has determined that the adoption of this proposed regulation does not affect small businesses, impose a significant economic burden on small businesses, nor will it restrict the formation, operation or expansion of small business. This regulation only impacts employees moving into the nonclassified, classified, or unclassified service of the Executive Branch.

I certify that to the best of my knowledge or belief, a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the proposed regulation on small business and that the information contained in this statement was prepared properly and is accurate.
