Section 1. NAC 284.697 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Explanation of Proposed Change: This amendment, proposed by the Division of Human Resource Management, adds language to clarify that a final decision rendered by the Employee-Management Committee is binding and therefore not eligible for appeal to a court system pursuant to NRS 284.384.

NAC 284.697 When resolution of grievance becomes binding. (NRS 284.065, 284.155, 284.384)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the resolution of a grievance is binding when:

(a) There is an agreement between the person filing the grievance and the appointing authority or the designated representative of the employing agency; or

(b) The Committee renders a final decision. A decision of the Committee is not subject to judicial review.

2. The appointing authority or the designated representative of the employing agency shall submit each proposed resolution of a grievance which has a fiscal effect to the Budget Division for a determination of whether the resolution is feasible on the basis of its fiscal effects. The resolution is binding only if it is so found.
