DEPUTY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

The Legal Division of the Legislative Counsel Bureau of the State of Nevada is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Deputy Legislative Counsel.

The Legal Division is a nonpartisan office which is part of the central staff of the Nevada Legislature, which meets biennially beginning on the 1st Monday in February of odd-numbered years for 120 days. The Legal Division prepares and drafts legislation and legal opinions, provides legal counsel to legislative committees during the legislative session and interim, works with Executive Branch agencies to prepare and review administrative regulations, represents the Legislature and Legislators in court and other proceedings and provides other assistance to Legislators upon request. In addition, the Legal Division provides legal support to the Legislative Counsel Bureau, including preparing and negotiating contracts, providing legal advice concerning employment and other matters and providing other legal support. The Legal Division is also responsible for preparing and publishing the Advance Sheets of Nevada Statutes, the Statutes of Nevada, the Nevada Revised Statutes, the Nevada Administrative Code and other official publications of the Legislature and also produces and distributes the Official Nevada Law Library, the searchable and hyperlinked electronic version of the legal publications and other documents.

Position Description: The Legal Division of the Nevada Legislative Counsel Bureau is a nonpartisan office providing full legal services to the Nevada Legislature, which meets biennially in odd-numbered years. The position of Deputy Legislative Counsel is an entry level attorney position. A majority of the work involves drafting legislation and amendments to legislation, researching and drafting legal opinion letters, providing legal assistance to legislative committees, preparing administrative regulations in coordination with Executive Branch agencies, and working on other special projects as assigned. The Deputy Legislative Counsel may also assist with other legal support to the Legislative Counsel Bureau including preparing contracts, providing legal advice concerning employment and other issues, providing litigation support and providing other legal support as needed.

Qualifications: Graduation from an accredited law school with a Juris Doctorate is required. Admission to the State Bar of Nevada is not initially required but is necessary for advancement. Coursework involving advanced legal writing and research, participation in Law Review or other law journals or experience involving significant legal writing and legal research and analysis is desirable.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: The successful candidate must be very detail oriented; possess strong analytical and organizational skills; have the ability to adhere to and meet demanding deadlines; possess exceptional reading comprehension and writing skills and an excellent command of formal English. The successful candidate must also demonstrate the ability to exercise good judgment and discretion; to work independently and productively for extended periods; to maintain the confidentiality of information and to accept and adapt to changes in the work environment.

Salary and Benefits: The annual starting salary is approximately $79,000, with many opportunities for advancement. Employees also receive state retirement and health benefits. An explanation of the retirement options and information regarding state retirement benefits may be accessed at <https://www.nvpers.org>. A description of the current health, vision and dental benefits available to all employees may be accessed at <https://pebp.state.nv.us>. Other optional benefits are available, including a deferred compensation program. Moving assistance for out-of-state candidates is available.

Location: This position is located in the Legislative Building in Carson City, Nevada, which is approximately 20 minutes from Lake Tahoe, 30 minutes from Reno and 4 hours from San Francisco by car. Carson City is known for its green open spaces, clean air, beautiful mountain and valley views, moderate climate and no traffic congestion. With four distinct seasons, the recreational possibilities are endless. The Legislative Building shares grounds with the State Capitol Building and the Supreme Court Building, providing a beautiful and pleasant work environment. Carson City and the surrounding areas offer an array of housing options. In addition, Carson City sits at the base of the beautiful Sierra Nevada mountain range which offers world class skiing and golfing as well as hiking, biking, river rafting and various other outdoor activities and cultural events, not to mention an estimated average of over 320 days of sunshine each year.

Working Conditions: The work is performed in a typical office environment. Significant overtime is required during legislative sessions and during certain other periods as necessary to meet the demands of the Legal Division. A flexible work schedule may be available, for periods other than during the legislative session.
