Agent, Investigations Division Nevada Gaming Control Board

Carson City or Las Vegas

Salary up to $102,692.00 (Employee/Employer Paid Retirement Plan)

The Nevada Gaming Control Board (Board) is seeking a diverse pool of qualified candidates for multiple Agent positions in the Investigations Division. The successful candidates will be assigned to the Corporate Securities Section, the Compliance Unit, or the Investigations Unit of the Investigations Division. These are unclassified, full-time positions located in Carson City or Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Board governs Nevada's gaming industry through strict regulation of all persons, locations, practices, associations and related activities. The Board protects the integrity and stability of the industry through its investigative and licensing practices, the enforcement of laws and regulations, and holding gaming licensees to high standards. Through these practices, the Board is able to ensure the proper collection of taxes and fees that are an essential source of revenue for the State of Nevada.

Position Description

Under limited supervision, an Agent in the Corporate Securities Section of the Investigations Division in Carson City investigates publicly traded corporations for registration, suitability to hold gaming licenses, approvals of public offerings and related approvals; monitors registered publicly traded corporations; monitors the gaming activities of licensees; collects and analyzes Securities and Exchange Commission filings and other documents and agreements; prepares comprehensive reports for presentation to the Board and Nevada Gaming Commission (Commission); and performs other duties as required.

Under limited supervision, an Agent in the Compliance Unit in the Corporate Securities Section of the Investigations Division in Carson City audits compliance plans and conducts special projects related to those plans; monitors the activities of reporting corporations and affiliated gaming licensees; collects and analyzes compliance committee minutes and other reports; prepares comprehensive audit review reports on compliance plans for presentation to senior staff and to the Board; and performs other duties as required.

Under limited supervision, an Agent in the Non-restricted Unit of the Investigations Division in Las Vegas investigates applicants for gaming licenses and other transactions or issues requiring Board or Commission action; may act as field supervisor; collects, analyzes, and documents the information obtained; prepares comprehensive investigative reports on gaming applications for presentation to the Board and Commission; completes assigned special projects and administrative duties; and performs related work as assigned.

Travel

In-state and out-of-state travel will be required outside of normal business hours.

Recruitment

This is an open, competitive recruitment for all qualified applicants.

Minimum Qualifications

Required qualifications include graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in finance, business administration, economics, accounting, or other applicable degree; or professional level experience in the areas of accounting, banking, finance, securities analysis and offerings, federal and state securities laws and regulations, financial analysis, or investigation of white-collar crime or closely related experience.
