Technology Technician

The Nevada Gaming Control Board is seeking qualified applicants for a Technology Technician position in the Technology Division for the Las Vegas office. This recruitment is for an unclassified, full-time position within the State of Nevada system. Applications will be accepted until recruitment needs are satisfied.

Recruitment: This is an open competitive recruitment, open to all qualified applicants.

The Position: Under immediate supervision from the Senior Engineer or Chief Deputy, a Technician is responsible for performing gaming device and associated equipment verification services in the State of Nevada; assist in the maintenance of the Board's gaming device and associated equipment image repository; investigate patron complaints and disputes; and performing related work as assigned.

Travel: Occasional in-state travel, to include short-term stays at remote locations, is required; Occasional unscheduled "call-ins" may occur; May require job attendance during off-hours; Requires a valid State of Nevada driver's license.

Minimum Qualifications: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a minimum of an Associate's degree in engineering technology, computing, or an equivalent field. Two years of experience working in a related field.

The ideal candidate will have:

- General knowledge of electronics, computing, and networking fundamentals.
- General knowledge of Microsoft Office fundamentals;
- Ability to establish and maintain effective professional working relationships with staff, gaming licensees, and the general public;
- Ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing and to work effectively on a team with limited supervision.

Salary Range: Up to $69,742. Salary reflects Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) contributions by both the employee and the employer. An employer-paid contribution plan is also available with a reduced salary.

How to Apply: All applicants who meet the minimum qualifications are eligible to apply for this position and must do so by completing an application on the Nevada Gaming Control Board website at www.gaming.nv.gov. In your cover letter, please indicate how you heard about the position.

All positions at the Nevada Gaming Control Board will have access to Criminal Justice Information Systems (CJIS) data. A background investigation will be conducted in order to verify the accuracy and completeness of statements contained on the application and to obtain information relevant to predicting successful performance as a Gaming Control Board employee.
